State Cases Are Planned Against Burns Operators By the Police Commission

Dan Lehon, Charles Sears and Four Assistants Are Placed Under Bond for Appearance Before Recorder Broyles Tuesday.

BURNS EXPECTED TODAY TO DEFEND HIS COURSE, DECLARES DAN LEHON

Detectives Given No Opportunity to Speak at the Meeting of Police Board Last Night—Burns Workers Indicted by the Grand Jury.

In double-quick time last night the police board railroaded through the report of the special committee appointed to investigate the alleged illegal operation of the Burns agency and several aids in the city, recommending that police cases be docketed against W. J. Burns and six other detectives.

W. J. Burns was not present, being out of the city, but as soon as he returns he will be arrested and tried upon the above case. His assistant, Dan Lehon, stated last night that he expected Burns to reach Atlanta this morning.

The six detectives against whom cases were made were all present. Their names were: Dan Lehon, southern manager of the Burns Detective agency; Charles E. Sears, manager of the local detective agency; W. W. ("Boots") Rogers, an ex-county policeman; C. C. Tedder, L. C. Whitfield and W. D. McWorth.

Bonds Are Given.

Lehon was held under $500; Sears, $100, and the other four $200 each. All gave bond for appearance in police court Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when Judge Nash Broyles will hear the several witnesses in the cases against the detectives.

The report was unanimously indorsed by the commissioners two minutes after the reading of it had been completed by Secretary Morris.

After a motion that the report be adopted was presented, Commissioner Johnson arose and made a motion that some of the detectives present who wished to talk be given a hearing. Mayor Woodward overruled the motion, and called for a vote on the motion to adopt.

In addition to the recommendation of the report that city cases be made against the detectives, with the exception of Charles E. Sears, the report recommended that Judge Broyles, on trial of the cases, be requested to bind all defendants over to higher courts for a violation of a state law, an act of the general assembly of Georgia of 1892, prohibiting persons, not appointed in writing from the lawfully constituted authorities of the state, from undertaking to act, among other things, as a detective. The statute further provides that any person violating this law is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Chief Newport Lanford, head of the city detectives, stated that a clear case had been made out against the Burns Detective agency and its aids, for violating both the city ordinances and the state law.

None of the detectives would discuss the cases against them except Sears, who simply asserted his innocence.

Special Committee Report.

The following is a copy of the report of the special committee of the commission:

"Atlanta, Ga., May 22, 1914.

"To the Honorable Board of Police Commissioners of the City of Atlanta:

"The undersigned special committee appointed by your board, under resolution passed at its last meeting, to investigate all persons assuming to carry on the business of a detective or detective agency without authority in the city of Atlanta, beg leave to report that they have investigated all sources of information at their command, and have read over considerable testimony given by different parties claiming to have acted as detectives, and have also interveiewed the members of the detective agencies in the city of Atlanta having knowledge of the subject in hand.

"In the opinion of your committee, after this examination, the following cases should be made and the facts at hand are sufficient to support them:

"W. J. Burns appears to have been engaged in the business of a detective agency in the city of Atlanta without having applied for a permit therefor and without receiving the recommendation by this board upon his application.

"We further find that said Burns has undertaken to follow the occupation of a detective in the city without having been approved by this board, as required by the ordinances of the city, and we, therefore, recommend that cases be made against said Burns for undertaking to engage in the business of a detective agency in the city in violation of sections 2024, 2025 and 2026 and we further think a case should be made against him for undertaking to act as a detective or to do detective work without having been approved by this board for such work in violations of sections 2024 and 2025 and 2026 of the city code.

"We further find that Dan Lehon has undertaken to carry on the same character of detective agency, and also doing detective work without receiving permits therefor by this board and without having his work or character as a detective passed upon as required by the ordinances of the city.

"We, therefore, recommend that cases be made against him for violation of the sections of the city code above set out.

"We further find that Charles E. Sears, being licensed to carry on the business of a detective agency, has employed men as detectives without having them passed on as required by the ordinances of the city in violation of sections 2027 and 2028 of the city code, and we therefore recommend that cases be made against him therefor.

"We further find that the following parties have undertaken to do work as detectives or follow the occupation of a detective without securing permits from this board or without having been approved by this board, in violation of sections 2024 and 2025 of the city code, and we therefore recommend that cases be made against them therefor. The names of the parties are as follows: W.

INSANITY PLEA FAILS TO SAVE G. W. TIDWELL, SR.

Greenville, S. C., May 22.—George W. Tidwell, Sr., a traveling salesman, today was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury here today as a result of the shooting and killing of R. Emmett Walker, paymaster of a local cotton mill, and prominent socially.

Temporary insanity, caused by the discovery of alleged improper relations between the dead young man and his daughter, was the defense of Tidwell. Immediately after the verdict was returned, counsel for the convicted man asked for a new trial, and arguments will be heard on the motion in circuit court here tomorrow. Sentence will not be levied until the hearing.

Walker was shot to death in the entrance of his office on March 12 last. His prominent connections, both socially and in business life, caused unusual interest to be manifested in the trial of Tidwell.

SCORES FALL INTO RIVER AS GANG PLANK BREAKS

New York, May 22.—Scores of men, women and children were plunged into the Hudson late today when a gangplank leading to the Scandinavian-American line steamer Frederick VIII. gave way just before the vessel sailed from Hoboken. Many were rescued, but three are missing.

Seven were badly injured.

Every available ambulance in the city was hurried to the scene. Estimates as to the number thrown into the water ran as high as fifty. Only quick work by the steamship's crew and by dock laborers with pike poles and ropes and ladders prevented larger loss of life.

RAPS COLLEGES FOR TRUCKLING TO "IRON MASTER"

Kansas City, Mo., May 22.—Branding Andrew Carnegie as an atheist, the Rev. T. S. Clyce, D. D., president of Austin college, Sherman, Texas, startled an educational conference of the general conference of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (southern) tonight by calling shame on those colleges which he said "had truckled to the iron master."

"Correspondence with the man convinces me he is an absolute atheist," he said, "and yet he controls the educational system in the United States. All ecclesiastical connections must be severed to get so much as a pipe organ from him. He has separated religion from the school.

"Those state institutions which say they are sorry they cannot teach religion in their class rooms are not free thinkers; rather they are slaves of the almighty dollar."

CONSUL SILLIMAN, REPORTED KILLED, IS SAFE IN MEXICO

He Arrives in Mexico City From Saltillo and Will Begin Trip to United States Today.

REBELS UNDECIDED ABOUT CONFERENCE

Administration Strongly Desires Constitutionalists to Send Spokesman to the Mediation Proceedings.

Washington, May 22.—The Mexican negotiations at Niagara Falls received the earnest attention of administration officials throughout the day. Several exchanges occurred between the American delegates and officials here and the situation was reviewed at the cabinet meeting, after which further advices went forward to the American delegates.

Coincident with these exchanges there were frequent expressions of the view in administration quarters that the constitutionalist element should be brought into the mediation proceedings. It has become evident that this question of constitutionalist participation has brought about divided counsels among the constitutionalists. Some desire participation at least to the extent of having a representative at Niagara Falls to give information, as it has been stated they will. Others still maintain that their best course is to withhold entirely from the proceedings.

Whether this division will upset plans for sending a spokesman to the mediators or will give way before the strong desire of the administration to have the constitutionalists represented is not clear. It was said today the matter had not been passed on finally by General Carranza.

Silliman Is Safe.

One of the most threatening complications to mediation was removed today when definite word reached the state department that Vice Consul John R. Silliman, arrested at Saltillo and long sought for, had arrived at Mexico City, accompanied by the British vice consul at Saltillo, Mr. MacMillan.

While, however, Silliman himself is safe, there remain several grave features connected with his arrest. Unofficial reports have indicated that he was placed under arrest while acting as a United States consul, was imprisoned, tried as a spy and condemned to death. Also that the United States consulate was entered and the official archives taken. These indignities, if officially verified, remain to be atoned for in the ultimate settlement.

General Carranza notified constitutionalist headquarters here today that the constitutionalist armies had entered Saltillo, evacuated by the federal garrison.

Today's advices from Admiral Howard on his flagship, California, at Mazatlan, reported further advances

STOP ELECTRIC CARS AND LIGHTS GO OUT

Service in Atlanta Affected by Breakdown of Machinery at Dunlap Plant.

A temporary breakdown in the machinery of the Dunlap power plant, at Gainesville, of the Georgia Railway and Power company, left Atlanta without car service or electric lights for seventeen minutes late Friday afternoon.

When the Dunlap plant failed, the Tallulah Falls plant came to the rescue, but it took about a quarter of an hour to make the change and get enough current to have everything in operation again.

GETS THIRD OF ESTATE OF FATHER HE KILLED

New York, May 22.—Chester B. Duryea, who recently killed his father, General Hiram Duryea, under the general's will made public today, received a third of the estate, the value of which is not stated, and in addition, the use for life of the Brooklyn home, and an income of $5,000 a year, insured by the creation of a $125,000 trust fund.

Duryea is in Bellevue hospital, where he was committed after he shot his father to death.

TO SAVE J. P. MORGAN FROM DEATH MELLEN SHOULDERED BLAME

Declares He Took Indictment Rightfully Belonging to Aged Financier Believing Criminal Action Would Kill Him.

TELLS DRAMATIC TALE WITH INTENSE FEELING

Assumed Responsibility for Grand Trunk Negotiations in Order to Shield Morgan, He Says.

Washington, May 22.—A dramatic climax marked the close of the sensational testimony of Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven railroad, before the interstate commerce commission today, when, with evidence of deep emotion, Mr. Mellen declared the late J. Pierpont Morgan was cognizant of the Grand Trunk negotiations, on which he (Mellen) was criminally indicted for violation of the Sherman anti-trust act, and that he "took the indictment that belonged to him (Morgan)" believing it would have killed the aged financier if he had been indicted.

Mr. Mellen spoke with intense feeling as he recited his efforts to shield the elder Morgan. This turned quickly to a show of resentment, however, as he told how the present J. Pierpont Morgan had suggested a "change in the presidency of the New Haven," at which suggestion Mr. Mellen declared with emphasis:

"I called his attention to the fact that I had been suffering under the humiliation of an undeserved indictment to protect his father."

The crowded courtroom listened with intense interest as this closing recital was given. Taking up the Grand Trunk transaction, on which Mr. Mellen's indictment was returned by the grand jury at New York, Governor Folk, chief counsel of the commission, asked:

Morgan's Part in Deal.

"Did Mr. Morgan have anything to do with this negotiation for the exchange of the Ontario and Western with the Grand Trunk?"

"He did."

"What?"

"He took a very active part in the negotiation."

"What part, can you tell, if you know?" asked Mr. Folk.

"I did not know that Mr. Morgan knew there was a negotiation on until he came into my office when I had an appointment with Mr. Smithers and Mr. Chamberlain, and he told them what he thought they ought to do in order to have peace between the New Haven and the Grand Trunk interests. He told of previous negotiations, which, he said, extended over a period of twenty years (that is the term he used; I suppose it was a general term), and that he had bought a steamship line of them on the understanding he was to have the New London Northern for the New Haven road and that they never had carried out their agreement.

"This negotiation, he said, was with Mr. Smithers' predecessor, Sir Charles Rivers Wilson. He thought it was a great mistake; that they had not kept faith with him, and he was quite emphatic—as he was, you know, once in a very great while—in thinking they had not done as they should; had not kept faith with him. And he told them they should give up the New London Northern road; he did not care for anything further, and that that would be the only thing, in his judgment, that would ever result in permanent peace between the two properties. Then he retired from the room. I think Mr. E. C. Smith was present during part of that interview.

Conference Continued.

"Mr. Morgan retired and left Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Smithers and myself to continue the conference. I told Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Smithers that we would continue the conference on the basis that they should give no further attention to the question of surrendering the New London Northern road; they might do as they pleased with it; I did not care. The worst punishment I wished to see inflicted upon them was the completion of their line into Providence. If they felt there was enough in the situation to warrant making a traffic agreement with us for the interchange of business for the joint use of the lines along the Connecticut river between Windsor and White River Junction and between Windsor and Brattleboro—and we had not nearly completed our line between Brattleboro and South Vernon—I was glad to do it.

"I was asked to put my views in the form of a proposition or contract, which I did; it was submitted to them and within a week the grand jury proceedings commenced in New York and I was indicted."

"Did you write a letter to the district attorney taking the responsibility?" asked Mr. Folk.

"I did and I did it for the sole purpose of shielding Mr. Morgan."

"At whose instance did you write that letter?"

"I wrote that letter at the instance of Mr. Lewis Cass Ledyard and Mr. Edward D. Robbins."

"Who dictated it?"

Kept Morgan's Name Out.

"I dictated a letter, which was redrafted by Mr. Robbins and corrected by Mr. Ledyard. I signed it in their

BECKER IS AGAIN FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE FOR PLOTTING ROSENTHAL'S DEATH

FORMER POLICE LIEUTENANT CHARLES BECKER AND WIFE.

"I am very, very sorry for myself," declared Becker grimly, after hearing the verdict of guilty of murder in the first degree pronounced. "I have nothing more to say." He was then handcuffed and led back to his cell in the Tombs. Mrs. Becker collapsed when her husband told her the news. "Oh," she cried, "Charlie, I'm so sorry, so sorry. Poor Charlie. I didn't expect it."

Only Pardon or Interference by Court of Appeals Can Save Former Police Lieutenant From the Electric Chair.

JURY FOREMAN WEEPS AS HE GIVES VERDICT; FIFTH BALLOT DECISIVE

Becker's Counsel Announces He Will Appeal, and Is Granted Stay of Week to Prepare for Future Campaign.

New York, May 22.—Twelve men today decided for the second time that Charles Becker was the arch-conspirator responsible for the Rosenthal murder, which, nearly two years ago, awoke New York to a realization of corruption in the police department and opened a new era of police reform.

Becker, once a police lieutenant, was found guilty of murder in the first degree. Only a pardon or interference again by the court of appeals can save him from following to the electric chair the four gunmen who shot Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, early on the morning of July 16, 1912. The jury today decided that the gunmen were Becker's agents.

The fifth ballot decided Becker's fate. It was taken after the jurors returned from luncheon at an uptown hotel, where they went when Supreme Court Justice Seabury had finished his charge. It was unanimous for conviction. Tears streamed down the foreman's face as he announced the decision, and tears stood in the eyes of several other jurymen. They had agreed that the corroboration which the district attorney failed to present at the first trial to support the stories of Rose, Vallon and Webber, the three accomplices who turned informers, had been furnished by new witnesses at the second.

GIVEN WEEK'S STAY TO PREPARE APPEAL

Becker's counsel announced that he would appeal, and gained a week's stay for the preparation of his future campaign. The defendant was granted a short meeting with his wife and his brothers, and then was taken back to his cell in the Tombs.

Becker and his wife were talking shortly before 5 o'clock in a room adjoining the sheriff's office when a court attendant announced that the jury had reached a verdict. Mrs. Becker was not permitted to accompany her husband to the courtroom. Newspaper men, court attendants, counsel for the defense and District Attorney Whitman and his staff were the only other persons allowed admission. The defendant's two brothers, Jackson and John Becker, the latter a detective lieutenant, hurried to a side entrance where they stood awaiting the verdict.

When the little group in the courtroom had found seats the twelve men who alone knew Becker's fate filed silently in with Foreman F. Meriden

Three Hundred Thousand Extra Bonus Vote Offer Closes Midnight May 30

The list of nominations in The Constitution's contest has reached considerable length, as was shown by the published list last Thursday. Much change has occurred since the first appearance of this list, due to the fact that many held to the idea that to nominate a candidate was all that was necessary, when, in reality, it is only the beginning.

Nothing of importance comes to the nominee unless action of a definite nature follows quickly the nomination.

The distribution of more than $25,000 worth of awards in this campaign depends upon action, and upon action alone.

Not one of the thirteen splendid motor cars that head the list of magnificent awards will be obtained by a candidate who merely permits her name to appear as a nominee without noticeable action upon her part toward the accumulation of free votes.

The two seven-passenger Oakland cars of value $2,525 each, the two five-passenger Velie touring cars of value $1,560 each, the nine five-passenger Overland touring cars of value $1,150 each and the nine Ludden & Bates self-player pianos, value $750 each, will be awards for diligent attention to vote-getting and for nothing else.

Easy to Get.

While the above is true, still nothing of a difficult nature attends the winning of any of the awards. The contest covers considerable territory, but a division of the territory has been made that gives every candidate practically the same opportunity to obtain the very first prize in the list. She competes only with those in her own district for the district prizes.

The four city districts comprise grand division No. 1. Those residing in grand division No. 1 compete for the grand division prizes, the first being a seven-passenger Oakland touring car, value $2,525; the second grand division prize being a five-passenger Velie touring car, value $1,560.

The five out-of-town districts comprise grand division No. 2, and the first and second grand division prizes are the same kind of cars offered in grand division No. 1.

Other Prizes.

A five-passenger Overland touring car of value $1,150 heads the prize list in each of the nine districts, the second prize in each of the nine districts being a Ludden & Bates self-player piano, value $750.

All those who do not win one of the above named valuable prizes will be paid a cash prize at the rate of $10 for every $100 of new subscriptions turned in during the campaign. There will be no blank of failure to those who turn in $100 or more in new subscriptions.

Candidates should not overlook the big extra vote offer presented to them this week. The offer gives 100,000 extra votes for each $36-club of new yearly subscriptions. This is an enormous score to start with and if secured should go a long way toward the award you desire. The offer holds good until Saturday, May 30, at midnight.

Write or telephone the contest department of The Constitution your omination today, or, if you are already a contestant, any inquiry for information will be welcomed.

SHORT AND UGLY WORD USED BY JUDGE FITE

Injunction Stops Work on Cartersville's New Postoffice.

Cartersville, Ga., May 22.—(Special.) All work on Cartersville's proposed postoffice building has been stopped as a consequence of the action of Hon. Sam P. Maddox, solicitor general of the Cherokee circuit, in filing an injunction for Judge A. W. Fite "and other citizens and taxpayers of the city of Cartersville."

It has been Judge Fite's claim since the actual work on this building was commenced that the United States government proposed to encroach upon certain property belonging to the city, being a frontage of 130 feet on Erwin street and a depth of 4 feet.

The property sold the government has, for a score or more years, been enclosed by a fence which was built along the lines which the county surveyor has declared to be the Erwin and Market street boundaries of the property selected for the proposed postoffice.

When a representative of The Constitution approached Judge Fite, he had the following to say: "Royal Smith, a few years ago, at the instance of the then mayor and aldermen, surveyed the street and placed the corner where I claim it is. I met the superintendent in front of the old postoffice this morning and said to him, kindly, that the injunction would not prevent him from continuing his work, and that I had filed it for the purpose of preventing him from encroaching upon the street. He then said: 'It looks to me like petty spite.' To which I replied: 'Do you mean to apply that to me?' And he said: 'It looks that way.' I said: 'You are a liar, and if you repeat it, I will slap your jaws.' He then said: 'You told me that you were going to file an injunction for my protection.' I said: 'I told you that, and for the protection of the people of Cartersville.'"

The day for hearing this injunction by Judge Wright, Judge Fite being disqualified, is set for May 30.

GREEK BOAT DESTROYED BY FLORIDA SPONGERS

Key West, Fla., May 22.—Angered because a Greek sponging fleet has been working the sponge fields near here, sympathizers of local sponge workers tonight attacked and destroyed one of the Greek vessels when it arrived in port here late today and threw the captain of the boat overboard. He was rescued by Sheriff Jaycocks, who was compelled to draw his revolver to prevent harm being done the Greek.

The headquarters of the Greeks are at Tarpon Springs, Fla., and they have gradually grown in numbers since they began to work the sponge fields five years ago. Much feeling has been aroused among the native sponge workers and tonight's attack was a result.

Washington, May 22.—The interstate trade commission bill, first measure on the administration anti-trust program, was agreed upon late today by the house "in committee of the whole house" and set aside for final passage after the other two anti-trust bills are ready for passage.

C. F. von HERRMANN, Section Director.

Blagden at their head. All twelve faces were expressionless.

Justice Seabury mounted the bench. He glanced quickly at the faces of the jurors, but he learned nothing there. Old court attendants who declared long practice had made them able usually to tell the verdict by the jurors' looks, admitted that on this occasion they were at a loss.

Becker in the room overhead was still talking to his wife when Justice Seabury took his seat. A bailiff was sent for the defendant. Becker kissed his wife as he left her.

"It's all right," he told her. "Don't worry. They'll free me."

FOREMAN IN TEARS IN GIVING VERDICT.

Becker walked briskly through the courtroom to the rail facing Justice Seabury and gripped it with both hands. His face was colorless. He glanced hopefully at the jury, but he didn't catch the eye of a single man. To all outward appearances the jury did not even know the defendant was in the room. The clerk asked the jury to rise.

"Foreman," he said, "have you reached a verdict?"

Blagden, a youngish man, blond and slim, brushed his eyes with a handkerchief, already damp. "We have," he said softly. "We find the defendant—" he hesitated a moment and continued in a whisper: "We find this defendant guilty as charged in the indictment—guilty of murder in the first degree."

Becker's face was gray as he gripped the bar in front of him with all his strength. The big muscles in his neck jumped out in heavy rolls. The veins at his temples swelled. His great frame swayed and drooped; then, with quick control, he became himself again.

Big tears welled into the eyes of the little foreman. He wiped them away and then the clerk began to ask the questions required by law. The roll was called and each individual juror was asked if "guilty" was his verdict, too.

Gives His "Pedigree."

Becker stood motionless while these questions were being put to the jurors. Immediately upon conclusion the clerk began to take Becker's "pedigree." To the first questions Becker answered in a steady voice that he was 43 years old, was born in the United States and that his parents both had been born in Germany.

"Married?" queried the clerk.

Becker didn't answer immediately. Almost in a whisper he replied, "Yes."

As to his occupation, Becker said he was a "former police officer in the city of New York, a Catholic and of temperate habits."

Justice Seabury thanked each man of the jury for his services, and they left the room.

Attorney Manton, told by the court he would be granted a reasonable time in which to make any motions he deemed advisable, asked for one week and received it.

"Charles Becker, you are remanded to the Tombs prison until May 29," the court announced. The whole proceeding from the time Becker was pronounced guilty until a recess was declared occupied scarcely four minutes.

In the meanwhile Jackson and John Becker, standing at the door to the courtroom, had heard the verdict. Jackson sank into a court attendant's chair and buried his face in his hands. Mrs. Becker's brother, John Lynch, and John Becker hurried to the room where Becker's wife was waiting. Everybody in the building and even a crowd in the street outside knew that Becker had been found guilty. A bailiff had shouted the news across the rotunda of the courthouse.

Mrs. Becker Hears News.

But Mrs. Becker, sitting behind closed doors, did not know it until John Becker entered the room. He did not say a word to her then. He did not have to. His face showed what had happened. His shoulders were bent and shaking, and his cheeks were wet. Mrs. Becker collapsed, and was still sobbing when her husband was led into the room. She threw her arms around his neck and buried her face on his shoulder.

"Oh," she cried, "Charlie, I'm so sorry, so sorry. Poor Charlie. I didn't expect it."

She could say no more. She released her husband from her embrace and dropped into a chair.

Becker stood looking down at her as she wept.

Handcuffs were then locked about his wrists; he was taken from the room and around the corridors to the other side of the building, across the Bridge of Sighs and into the Tombs. On his way around the corridor friends expressed their sorrow.

"I am very, very sorry for myself," he declared grimly. "I have nothing more to say."

Immediately after the court was adjourned Mr. Manton said:

"I fail to see how the jury managed to convict Becker in view of conflicting evidence presented by witnesses for the state and evidence that our witnesses gave. However, it has been done. I immediately will set to work to prepare an appeal. We will fight, and fight hard, to have Becker cleared of this charge."

District Attorney Whitman expressed himself highly gratified with the verdict. "It speaks for itself," he said. "Becker is guilty. It was proven. He must pay the penalty of his crime."

Mrs. Becker remained in the sheriff's office a long time after her husband had been returned to the Tombs. She was too overcome with grief to leave immediately.

When she went at last she had to be assisted from the building.

This, the sixteenth and last day of the second trial, was devoted to the judge's charge and deliberation of the jury.

Judge Reviews Evidence.

In his review of the evidence Justice Seabury directed the jury that to find the defendant guilty that they must decide that the stories of Rose, Vallon and Webber were supported by witnesses not involved in the crime. This centered emphasis on the testimony of Charles Plitt, Jr., who was Becker's press agent when the former police lieutenant was master of the old strong arm squad. Plitt was a witness for the defense at the first trial, but at the second he took the stand at the call of the district attorney. Becker's attorneys tried to prove that Plitt also was an accomplice, but the court left this question to the jury, and their verdict showed they decided he was not.

This point, it was said tonight, might form the basis upon which Becker's attorneys promised to take the case once more to a higher court. It was a similar question, involving the status of Sam Schepps, a witness at the first trial, but not at this, which enabled Becker to gain a new trial from the court of appeals after his first conviction.

Becker's counsel, Martin T. Manton, entered formal objection to Justice Seabury's remarks to the jury. "I take exception," he said, "to the entire charge on the ground that it is an animated argument."

The verdict caught Becker unprepared, for when the jury first retired his lawyer told him he looked for an acquittal. The defendant at that time declared he did not believe it possible he could be convicted.

Mrs. Becker was even more hopeful. "I cannot conceive," she said, "that any twelve sensible men can give credence to such cooked-up stories as those told by Rose, Webber, Vallon and Plitt. I don't expect a conviction. The worst that can happen is a disagreement. Charles is innocent and he will be exonerated."

STATE CASES PLANNED AGAINST BURNS MEN

W. or 'Boots' Rogers, C. C. Tedder, L. C. Whitfield and W. D. McWorth.

"We further find that under the acts of the general assembly of Georgia of 1892, there is a provision that no person who has not been appointed in writing from the lawfully constituted authorities of the state, who shall undertake to act, among other things, as a detective, and if he does so that he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

"We think all of the foregoing parties have violated this law except Charles E. Sears, and we recommend that the court, on the trial of the cases above named, be requested, if the facts are shown as your committee is informed, to be bound over to the higher courts to answer for a violation of the state law. Respectfully submitted."

Lehon Indicted.

Dan S. Lehon, chief aid to William J. Burns, was indicted by the grand jury Friday morning with four others implicated in the Rev. C. B. Ragsdale episode.

They were Carlton C. Tedder, the Burns detective who previously had been employed in the office of Attorney William M. Smith; Arthur Thurman, Ragsdale's lawyer, and Rev. Ragsdale and R. L. Barber. Bench warrants were issued for each. Lehon was put under $2,500 bond at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Tedder and Thurman will be put under $2,000 bond. Barber's bail will be $2,500. Ragsdale's, however, will be only $1,000. Thurman, in his office in the Healey building, was informed by newspaper men late in the afternoon that he was under indictment. He took the news calmly enough, asserting that he was prepared to make bond at whatever time the warrant was served.

Ready to Make Bond.

"They need not go to the trouble of coming for me," he smiled. "I'll go down to the courthouse and make it at any time they see fit."

Asked who would go his bail, he answered:

"Well, one of 500 friends in the city."

Lehon's bond was certified by Leopold Haas. He made it in the office of the Burns agency in the Healey building when Deputy Sheriff Plennie Miner appeared to serve the warrant. Lehon is charged with subornation of perjury. Tedder and Thurman face similar charge. The charge against Ragsdale and Barber, however, is for perjury.

Only the Ragsdale incident was considered by the grand jury Friday. The accusations against C. W. Burke, Jimmie Wrenn and others connected with the case, including witnesses who repudiated their trial testimony, will be deliberated upon Monday, when the jury meets again.

Ragsdale was quizzed for two and a half hours before the jury. He emerged from the room, however, looking none the worse for the ordeal. His sons would not permit him to talk to newspaper reporters. Ragsdale is the minister who made an affidavit for the Frank defense, telling of having heard Jim Conley confess to the murder of Mary Phagan.

R. L. Barber, a member of the pastor's former congregation in the Plum Street Baptist church, corroborated Ragsdale's story in an affidavit. Ragsdale later confessed that the document was false, and that it had been framed. He implicated Lehon, Arthur Thurman, who has been the preacher's counsel, and Carlton C. Tedder, the Burns operative.

Genevieve Goodin Examined.

Other witnesses who were examined by the grand jury were Genevieve Goodin, a stenographer in Thurman's office, who stated that she had seen Ragsdale come frequently into the offices of her employer, but that she had never seeu him paid any money by the attorney.

L. P. Whitfield, a Burns detective, was also examined. He refused to discuss his testimony. J. K. Tippet, the stenographer attached to the office of Luther Z. Rosser, was called to explain the taking of Ragsdale's affidavit. The indictments were returned shortly before 2 o'clock, at which time the grand jury adjourned.

The hearing of the John L. Tye motion to upset the Frank verdict will be called before Judge Hill this morning, but will be postponed at the request of Solicitor Dorsey until May 29, in order that he will have ample time to prepare his counter showing.

The Dan S. Lehon contempt of court hearing will be held this morning before Judge Ben Hill. It is reported that this procedure will go on without further delay.

Assistant Solicitor E. A. Stephens has charge of the grand jury investigation in the absence of Solicitor Dorsey, whose entire time is being devoted to the preparation of the Tye motion fight.

CONSUL SILLIMAN IS SAFE IN MEXICO

of the constitutionalists on Guadalajara. This city, it is understood, is the only serious obstacle to the constitutionalist movement on the western side.

Burwell Reported Killed.

Admiral Howard also reported that skirmishing about Mazatlan continues.

Consul Miller at Tampico reported that while it had been impossible to get positive news of the American Burwell, in the Ozuluama district, all information tends to confirm the report that he has been killed. The latest version is that Burwell was in a boat on Lake Tamiahua and was shot when he failed to obey an order to stop.

Progress Being Made.

Niagara Falls, Ont., May 22.—Three separate conferences between the three South American envoys and the American delegates today constituted the work of the mediation conference here. The Mexican delegates were not called into consultation.

While the subject of constitutionalist participation in the mediation was a subject of interest to all the principals to the conference, it was learned tonight that neither the American delegates nor the mediators had broached it in the formal sessions today.

In response to newspaper inquiries about their attitude toward constitutionalist representation, the Mexican delegates issued a statement saying they would await formal notice of such question from the mediators themselves before commenting on it and then would consult their home government.

Incidentally the South American envoys let it be known that beyond press dispatches they had no information about the intentions of the constitutionalists.

Participation by Rebels.

Except for the references to the press dispatches in informal conversation about the general situation, the mediators in the main ignored the question of constitutionalist participation, going forward with their efforts to arrive at an agreement between the United States and the Huerta government in differences which caused the present strained relations.

The possibility of constitutionalist participation was discussed privately by principals to the conference. One of the mediators indicated clearly, however, that they were not likely to renew the invitation previously extended to the constitutionalists and then withdrawn. They feel that the next move must come from the constitutionalists.

The view held by the mediators that for the present the most feasible way of solving the Mexican problem is to get a bipartite agreement between the Huerta government and the United States is known to meet the approval of the Mexican delegates. They have not committed themselves to any course of action should the constitutionalists desire to come into the negotiations. Originally, it is understood, the Huerta government had no objection to the entry of the constitutionalists in the negotiations. The Mexican delegates, however, in their statement tonight emphasized that they had no official word on the subject as yet.

One of the American commissioners said tonight that no common ground had been reached, but that there was no hitch in the negotiations and that progress was being made at each session.

3 GRANDCHILDREN NAMED HEIRS BY GEN. SICKLES

New York, May 22.—The will of the late Major General Daniel E. Sickles, which was read yesterday at the Sickles residence, named as his heirs three of his grandchildren, Daniel E. Sickles, 10-year-old son of Stanton Sickles; Christopher Crackenthorpe, 13 years old, and Ida Blanche Crackenthorpe, 11, children of Mrs. Ida Sickles Crackenthorpe, whose husband is connected with the British consular service.

A legacy of $5,000 was left to General Horatio King and smaller legacies to servants.

The value of the estate, according to the attorney for the late general, is small. The only property owned by the general at the time of his death was his home in Lower Fifth avenue, and against this were two mortgages. General Sickles inherited most of the large fortune left by his father, who at one time owned practically all of New Rochelle, N. Y. It was estimated at about $5,000,000, but dwindled to nothing in unfortunate speculations.

NINE BRITISH OFFICERS PLEAD GUILTY TO GRAFT

London, May 22.—Pleas of guilty were handed down today by seven of the nine British army officers and all the eight civilians charged in January last with graft in connection with contracts for supplying army canteens.

All the officers except Lieutenant Colonel Whittaker were connected with the quartermaster's department of the army and had risen from the ranks. The civilians accused were employees of Lipton's Limited.

Sentence was deferred until May 26.

SWIMMERS GET READY; LAKE OPENS MONDAY

Silk Bathing Suits and Sleeveless Shirts for Men Are Barred This Year.

Bright and early Monday morning—at 5 o'clock a. m., to be precise—the swimming pool at Piedmont park will be thrown open for the summer season.

The lake and bathhouses will be open to the public between the hours of 5 in the morning until sundown, and on Sundays the same hours will be observed as were in effect last season.

The park department has regulated the costumes to be worn during the season. Silk bathing suits, the kind that cling to the skin, will not be permitted, nor will the men folks be allowed in the pool with sleeveless shirts.

Every precaution will be observed this year to prevent accidents. There will be a corps of lifesavers on the lake at all hours of the day, and boys and girls who cannot swim, or who are just learning, will not be allowed out on the cement pool where the water is only waist deep.

PROSPECTS NOT GOOD FOR LARGE PEACH CROP

Washington, May 22.—General prospects for a large yield of fruits of all kinds, with the possible exception of peaches, have not been equaled at any time within the past decade, save in 1912, according to the report today of the United States Chamber of Commerce's committee on statistics and standards on the condition of fruit as of May 2 last. The report deals with all fruits of commercial importance, including apples, peaches, pears, plums and prunes, grapes, oranges, lemons, grapefruit, strawberries, cherries and the like.

The committee reports that more or less damage has occurred in nearly all section to fruits, but that save in the case of peaches it is not a matter of much moment. Severe cold snaps in early spring caused considerable damage to peaches in many states. Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas suffered heavily, the outlook in those states being for not over 25 per cent of a normal crop. More or less serious damage also was done in Missouri, southern Mississippi, northwestern Alabama, south and east Texas, southwestern Georgia, western Kentucky, western Tennessee, southern Idaho and portions of North Carolina.

"Elsewhere," the committee finds, "the outlook is so promising that in general a crop of peaches approaching the normal seems more than a likelihood."

ERA OF BIG BUSINESS PREDICTED BY GARY

New York, May 22.—The country is entering on a new era of big business, according to the address of Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel corporation, at the opening of the annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel institute today.

"As I read the signs of the times," said Judge Gary, "there is a well developed sentiment throughout this country in favor of giving big business a fair chance.

"I said six months ago that in my opinion we were approaching the door of prosperity. Do not forget that we are six months nearer that door. There are some favorable things to be considered. In the first place we turn to the year's crops—that is something that cannot be taken away, even by politicians."

WILSON HONORARY HEAD OF JEWISH ARMY LEAGUE

New York, May 22.—Announcement was made today that President Wilson had consented to become honorary president of the Jewish Army and Navy league, a newly organized body with headquarters in New York.

The object of the league is to encourage patriotism among the Jews. Branches will be established in all forts, on all ships in the navy and in the national guard.

Chaplains for those of Jewish faith in the army and navy will be obtained and the members of the league will endeavor to obtain employment for honorably discharged Jewish soldiers and sailors and encourage enlistment.

KERMIT ROOSEVELT ARRIVES IN MADRID

Madrid, May 22.—Kermit Roosevelt, whose marriage with Miss Belle Wyatt Willard, daughter of the American ambassador to Spain, is to take place early in June, arrived here this evening in the best of health and spirits. He was met by the ambassador and members of his family, and drove to the embassy.

KING IN THEATER INSULTED BY WOMAN

Other Militants Shout at British Ruler Before Being Ejected—Saved From Being Roughly Handled.

London, May 22.—King George and Queen Mary were compelled to listen to the harangue of a militant suffragette this afternoon while they were attending a matinee at His Majesty's theater. A woman rose in the stalls and began to address the king.

"You Russian czar!" she shrieked. The attendants quickly rushed in and tried to get her out, but found that she was chained to the seat. They had to file through a link before she could be removed. While this was in progress half a dozen women in different parts of the theater shouted at his majesty. One of them jumped on the stage and began a speech.

When she had been thrown out others began. Eventually all the disturbers were ejected. The police on duty outside had a hard struggle to save them from rough handling by the hostile crowd.

Art Treasures Slashed.

"The wild women" of the Women's Social and Political union, the militant suffragette organization, today continued their terrorizing tactics by making two separate attacks on the National art treasures.

The turmoil of the battle in the vicinity of Buckingham palace, where a column of determined women yesterday attempted to reach the king with a petition, barely had subsided when early today a woman armed with a loaded cane ruined five masterpieces in the National gallery.

Almost simultaneously another woman wrecked a picture hanging in the Royal Academy of Art.

Both women were arrested.

The pictures damaged at the National gallery were a "Madonna and Child With Infant Saints," a "Portrait of Girolamo Malatini," "Saints John and Christopher and the Doge," a "Landscape With the Death of Saint Peter" and "Christ's Agony in the Garden."

The painting gashed at the Royal academy was "Primavera," by George Clausen. The academy was filled with a fashionable throng when a woman drew a butcher's cleaver which she had concealed in her clothing and dashed at the picture.

Flour Thrown at Judge.

The scenes at Bow street court when the women arrested during yesterday's battle were arraigned today, surpassed in wildness all previous efforts of the militant party. A male suffragist, who somehow had found a perch among the rafters, blew earpiercing variations of the "Marseillaise" on a cornet and then sounded the "Charge." This was the signal for volleys of bags of flour and other missiles to be thrown at the magistrate, Sir John Dickinson.

Three policemen were required to prevent one of the prisoners from throwing herself over the rails of the inclosure. Another woman removed her shoe and hurled it at the head of the magistrate, who caught it deftly in his extended hand.

When Sir John Dickinson suspended the hearing he ordered the court cleared and there was a free-for-all fight. Subsequently the women again were brought in. Most of them were bound over to keep the peace for six months, but they unanimously refused to find sureties.

DRIVEN BY FOREST FIRE, BIG MOOSE VISITS TOWN

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., May 22.—Steamers are moving slowly on account of heavy smoke which hangs over Lake Superior and St. Mary's river from forest fires in the upper peninsula.

An immense moose, which was driven from its Canadian home by forest fires, was seen early today by watchmen at the St. Mary's river. It practically took possession of the city.

The moose began to browse in the government park when newsboys gave chase. The animal was driven into the lock walls and the watchmen scattered. The boys routed the big beast and chased it through the streets. Milk wagons were overturned and several plate-glass windows were broken. The moose finally leaped into the river, disappearing on the Canadian shore.

GIRL IS WOUNDED IN WAYCROSS DUEL

Domestic Difficulties Result in Shooting Between Storekeeper and His Son-in-Law.

Waycross, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Following an exchange of shots this morning in which Miss Vergie Smith, a 15-year-old girl, was painfully wounded by four buckshot, A. O. Smith and Herbert W. Wilson, his son-in-law, were placed under peace bonds.

Smith was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Wilson, charging assault with intent to murder, and released on a thousand dollar bond. Wilson was charged with assault and battery, carrying a pistol concealed and carrying a pistol without license, in warrants issued by Smith. Bond was given in each instance.

Trouble between the two, Smith being Wilson's father-in-law, is of long standing and grew more acute in March when domestic difficulties resulted in Mrs. Wilson leaving her husband and returning to her father, who moved here some months ago from Valdosta.

The exchange of shots was on Plant avenue in front of Smith's place of business, and came after a short conversation. Reports as to what passed between the men and L. A. Wilson, father of Herbert, vary, but eye witnesses state none of the parties seemed unduly excited at first. In a few minutes, however, it became apparent that there would be trouble.

It is claimed Smith told the Wilsons to stop passing his store. Smith says he merely told the elder Wilson he did not think he was treating him right. He said he had reference to Wilson's appearance before the grand jury recently in a matter placed before the jury by him, the outcome of domestic troubles between the younger Wilson and his wife. Smith used a shot gun and Wilson a pistol. Friends stopped the fight before more than one shot apiece was fired.

Cases made by city police will be tried next Thursday.

YOUNG WHITE MAN HELD ON WOMAN'S COMPLAINT

Harrowing Story of Night of Torture Told Police by Woman.

As the result of a story of a night of torture told by a pretty young woman in a hysterical condition, who staggered into the Western and Atlantic yard office, near the stock yards, just before daybreak Friday, W. F. Archie, a young white man, named by the girl as her assailant, was arrested about 1:30 o'clock Friday on a warrant sworn out by the young woman's husband.

The young woman was sent to the Grady hospital, where she sobbed a pitiful tale to Dr. Summerall, superintendent of the hospital, in which she accused Archie of luring her to a lonely spot in the woods near the railroad yards, and making advances to her there, attacking her when she resisted him. She claimed that she was held captive by Archie for eight hours, during the night, and that it was 3 o'clock in the morning before she finally was able to free herself from her captor.

Archie denied to the county police officers, A. T. Butler and Jesse Walters, who arrested him at the corner of Hilliard and Houston streets, that he had been guilty of any crime.

The young woman stated that she and her husband were separated about one month ago, and that late Thursday afternoon she set out from her apartments in Carnegie way to find a rooming place. She stated that on Luckie street she met a friend, who introduced her to W. F. Archie, and that he offered to help her find a rooming place. She also said that her husband was present, and having known Archie in Chattanooga, she states that he told her to go with Archie and that he would find her a place to room.

She charged that Archie first insisted that she go with him to the Western and Atlantic yards, where he said he wished to collect some money from a man in that neighborhood. It was near this place, she said, that he attacked her.

NEW FIRE ALARM BOXES PLACED IN ANSLEY PARK

Fire Chief W. B. Cummings said last night that fire alarm boxes have been installed at four points in Ansley Park and he suggests that the people living in the neighborhood familiarize themselves with the stations in order that they may be prepared to use them without delay in case of fire.

The boxes have been established as follows: No. 134 at Fifteenth, near Piedmont avenue; No. 135, at Sixteenth and Peachtree circle; No. 136, at the junction of Peachtree and West Peachtree, and No. 137 at Brookwood, opposite Washington seminary.

Chief Cummings also stated that the department is preparing to extend wires to East Atlanta to connect that section with the new system.

HADEN IS NOT IN RACE FOR THE LEGISLATURE

Declares Only Support He Asks Is for Georgia Chamber of Commerce.

C. J. Haden, president of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, whose candidacy for the legislature from Fulton county has been suggested by many friends, has written a letter to The Constitution declaring that he is not in the race, and that the "only support he asks of the people of Georgia is for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce."

The letter follows:

Editor Constitution: Referring to the article in The Constitution today, allow me to say I appreciate the good intentions of my friends who have suggested my name for the legislature. It was a surprise to me. I have never held nor sought an office. The only support I ask of the people of Georgia is for the Georgia Chamber of Commerce.

Whatever time I may have to dedicate to the public service can, I believe, be better directed through that organization than by taking part in adding more volumes to Georgia's already over-grown library of statutes.

C. J. HADEN.

MEN AND RELIGION BULLETIN NO. 116

The Shrine of Mammon

"You cannot serve God and Mammon.

"Lovers of Money scoffed at Him.

"He said unto them, 'You are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is an abomination in the sight of God.'"

—Luke 16-12; 15

A cash register.

Mammon's sign or symbol.

It stood in a fitting shrine, a bar on Marietta street, keeping tally in terms of gold to the death of souls.

One believed he was not getting his share; a court bailiff came to this temple of greed, where daily the laws of God and man are being broken.

He laid hands upon the cash register, the thing sacred to Mammon.

The saloon keeper resisted. He lies dead of a pistol shot, Atlanta's latest offering to the god of greed.

Mammon's myriad forms are being seen today as clearly as was, long ago, the beast headed idol Moloch, whose image was a furnace with a lap wherein mothers were wont to lay their babies, living, to shrivel and die in the hellish heat—mothers obsessed, thinking thus to gain eternal happiness for their little ones. Moloch's arms are empty today, because men have learned.

But behold the insatiable maws of Mammon!

Mills mangling children to grind out gold—

Inadequately equipped railroads, gutted to pay dividends on watered stock, now in wrecks rending, crushing and maiming men, women and children—

Factories and stores where underpaid girls fight for life—

Mines where women and children are slain in labor wars—

The brothel, the brewery, the distillery and the bar—countless dead are here—and everywhere the cash register keeps tab.

Last week, when our streets were thronged with thousands of joy-loving men and women, who needed not the curse of alcohol, two lithe men of brawn were slain. They were drunk; one was crushed in an elevator; the other was shot.

THEY BOUGHT PLEASURE. HOW CHEATED WERE THEY!

CASH REGISTERS MARKED THE PRICE OF THEIR DEATH.

WHO GOT THE MONEY?

It was divided between brewer, distiller, bar-keeper, LANDLORDS and YOU!

Will not the food bought with your gain choke?

Surely the tears of those who love these dead will glitter and glisten in the sheen of the gowns bought for wives and daughters with the gold gained by the death of these and other souls.

Choose you.

You cannot serve God and Mammon. Neither can you justify yourselves before men today.

Money lovers scoffed at Him; seeking to justify themselves, they bought Judas; they chose Barabbas, the robber, and slew their Lord in the vain effort to silence the truth. But today the risen Christ has so wrought upon the hearts of men that they, too, are getting the viewpoint of their God, our Father in Heaven. They have learned. They, too, loathe and abominate the things of Mammon, when they see and understand the cruelties practiced for his sake.

You cannot serve God and a cash register.

God calls. Happiness is in His hands.

His churches, as never before, are holding forth the word of life. NIGHT AFTER NIGHT, AND DAY AFTER DAY, THE BAPTISTS OF OUR CITY ARE HOLDING SERVICES. Pray for the success of these meetings. Go to them. And this coming Sunday, let all of us go up to the house of prayer.

Jesus said: "If two of you shall agree on earth as touching anything that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in Heaven."

NOT TWO, BUT THOUSANDS IN ATLANTA ARE AGREED THAT OUR CITY AND OUR STATE SHALL BE WON AND HELD FOR CHRIST.

Even as you read this, cry out with us to God for Georgia and its Capital, that they may be saved from the curse of Mammon!

And Sunday, come with us to your Church.

We cannot serve God and Mammon.

You will serve God.

WEATHER CONTINUES FAIR FOR ATLANTA; IT WILL BE WARMER

The atmospheric pressure remains high over the southeastern section, indicating continued fair weather at Atlanta over Saturday, with no chance for rain. NICK WILBURN GRANTED RESPITE BY GOVERNOR

Two Weeks' Delay Granted in Order to Secure Hearing by Commission.

Governor John M. Slaton has granted a two weeks' respite to Nick Wilburn, who is under sentence of death at Grays, Jones county, for the murder of John King, a farmer. In granting the respite, Governor Slaton issued the following statement:

In re Nick Wilburn, application for executive clemency:

Prison commission met in special session Thursday, May 21, 1914, for the purpose of hearing the application for clemency in the case of Nick Wilburn, sentenced to be hanged on May 29, 1914.

The state's counsel were present, but the Hon. John R. Cooper was engaged in Laurens superior court and was unable to present the petition of his client.

Hon. Joseph E. Pottle, solicitor general of the Oemulgee circuit, who prosecuted the defendant, Nick Wilburn, and Mr. Homer Johnson, who assisted Solicitor Pottle in the prosecution, informed the prison commission that there had been no delay practiced in the case, and they further declared that of their own knowledge Mr. Cooper could not be present because of an engagement in the courts elsewhere, and they further stated that in their opinion a respite of two weeks was reasonable and just and should be granted. Thereupon the prison commission recommended to me in writing a respite for two weeks in order that a reasonable opportunity be given to make such showing in the case as the facts warrant.

I, therefore, grant the respite for two weeks and an appropriate order will be drawn. JOHN M. SLATON,
May 22, 1914. Governor.

DR. MILLER PREACHES AT RAILROAD Y. M. C. A.

D., evangelist, and one of the leaders in the great Baptist revival campaign now on, will be the speaker. He is a man of evangelistic force, and a message of power may be expected. A male quartet composed of Professor A. R. Walton, E. L. Parham, B. Stroud and Charles Hackney, will sing. The association's fine orchestra will play prior to the service, and will lead in the general song service.

Big Shipment of Berries.

Lyerly, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Large shipments of strawberries and cherries are being made daily from Lyerly now, the berry crop being now in full sway. The growers find a scarcity of hands to gather the fruit, and quite a lot of the berries ruin in the field. The berries are bringing fancy prices.

HOME SUBDIVISION AT AUCTION TODAY

Widespread Interest Is Shown in the Peachtree Heights Park Sale.

Widespread interest has been manifested in the auction to be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock in Peachtree Heights park, and there will undoubtedly be a large attendance.

Interest has grown largely in this property since the addition of flaming arc lights throughout the park. At the auction some of Atlanta's highest class home property will be placed on the block, and those who have long been considering building their homes here will have the best opportunity to secure the lots they want.

No home subdivision around Atlanta has been developed as highly as has Peachtree Heights park. Besides city water, sewers, electricity, telephones and a splendid transportation service, the owners and developers of this property have just added flaming arc street light throughout the park, brightening it in every direction and making it as light or lighter than the city itself. These lights have been placed so as to thoroughly light the roads and surrounding lots from one to another, and this is regarded as the most advanced step which has yet been taken in developments of this kind.

Although it is understood that only a limited number of lots will be offered for sale at Saturday's auction, they will be selected from among the most attractive building sites in the park. The widest range of choice is offered here, and already many Atlantans have bought lots in this splendid north Atlanta subdivision for the purpose of building homes upon them. Several handsome residences have already been built. Others are now being built, and there will be much more building there before the end of the present year.

Besides what has already been done, more valuable improvements still are planned in Peachtree Heights park, among them the development of Battle avenue as a 100-foot parked driveway, and the erection of a school house within the park.

So thoroughly convinced is E. Rivers, who has taken the foremost part in the development of this property, that he has the best and highest class residence development which Atlanta offers, that he has challenged comparison of it with any other anywhere devoted to the best residence building.

The auction, which will begin promptly at 3 o'clock, will be conducted by Steve R. Johnston, the well-known auctioneer, who has the happy faculty of keeping his crowd always in a good humor.

MRS. STOE WILL ASK PRESIDENT FOR PARDON

Attorneys of Mrs. Annie E. Stoe serving eight months sentence in the Fulton county jail imposed by Judge Newman, of the United States court, after a jury had found her guilty of violating the Mann white slavery act, yesterday announced their intention of making a direct appeal to President Wilson for a full pardon. Before making an appeal to the president for pardon, Mrs. Stoe's attorneys will ask Judge Newman, of the federal court, who presided at the trial, and District Attorney Alexander for endorsement of the application. Mrs. Stoe's sentence followed that of her husband, Sam Stoe, who is now doing five years in the Atlanta federal penitentiary for the same offense.

Chattooga Tax Equalizers.

Lyerly, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Chattooga county now has another board of tax equalizers, the board of roads and revenues acting upon instructions from the state commissioners to appoint a new board, following the resigning of the former board, consisting of J. V. Wheeler, W. G. Watson and C. N. Purseley. The new board appointed was W. A. King, appointed for a term of six years; R. M. Crawford, four years, and H. R. Thomas, two years.

FAILS TO SECURE RECOGNITION

Lady's Own Friends Assert Could Not Recognize Her When Brought Face to Face.

Arritts, Va.—Mrs. D. J. Bowen, of this town, makes the following statement: "For 20 years I suffered with womanly troubles, and although I tried different treatments, I did not get any relief.

I was unable to look after any of my work, and my friends thought I could not get well.

Finally I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I hadn't taken one-third of the first bottle before I could notice its good effects.

Now I can do all my work, feel like I'm not more than 16 years old, but am really 49. My own friends say I look so well they don't recognize me when we meet in the road.

My daughter is using Cardui, and she says it is a fine medicine. I also have a number of lady friends taking it, since they found out how it helped me.

Whenever I feel a little fatigued after a day's extra hard work, I just take a dose of Cardui and am all right. I can't say too much for Cardui."

Thousands of women who now suffer from womanly troubles could be relieved and benefited by following Mrs. Bowen's example.

Are you of this number?

If so, try Cardui today. It cannot harm you, and is almost sure to do you good.

The Standard for Baking Powders the World Over is an Absolutely Pure, Cream of Tartar Baking Powder

CREAM OF TARTAR is the crystallized acid of grapes refined to absolute purity and ground to a creamy flour. It is declared by physicians the most wholesome of all fruit acids, and has been proved by long and universal experience the most efficient and satisfactory for baking purposes.

Highly refined products of the grape, properly combined with bicarbonate of soda and a little corn starch to absorb atmospheric moisture, are the sole ingredients of the ideal, high-class, standard baking powder.

Many acids have been tried during the last hundred years to find a substitute for the grape cream of tartar which would cost less. In recent years alum, which makes a baking powder at a cost of two cents a pound, has been used because of its trifling cost. Alum, however, has been disapproved by scientific chemists and physicians and is not employed by manufacturers of high-class powders.

Cream of tartar powders being healthful themselves, add to the healthfulness of the food.

GRIFFIN COUPLE ARE MARRIED AT DEPOT

Griffin, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Dr. Robert L. Crawford and Miss Lucy Moore were married at the union passenger station here today while waiting for a train, and began their honeymoon tour at once, making Atlanta their first stop.

Dr. Moore asked Ordinary Drewry to perform the ceremony, which he agreed to do, provided it could be done before the arrival of the train. With a rush and hurry arrangements were made, and the happ couple, while seated in an automobile, were united in wedlock just as the train for the Gate City was rolling in.

Cedartown Chautauqua.

Cedartown, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The second annual Cedartown chautauqua will be held in this city June 4, through June 9. The affair is purely a public institution, and is backed by about fifty of the representative citizens of this city. A program of unusual merit has been secured, and no doubt the chautauqua will be largely attended. The business houses of this city will decorate their places of business and many homes throughout the city will be decorated with flags and bunting. On the opening day a mammoth automobile parade will be given, and decorated cars will be filled with pretty girls.

WEST GEORGIA FRUIT IN FINE CONDITION

Columbus, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—There is a fine outlook for peaches this year in the Pine mountain fruit belt, forty miles north of Columbus. The crop is regarded as safe now, so far as freezing weather is concerned, and unless a severe hail storm or cyclone should visit that section a good yield is expected.

Reports show that the yield from the peach sections in the south as a whole will be quite short this year. The Georgia crop will be short, but the yield in this state will be far above the average for this section of the country. There are several large orchards in the vicinity of Warm Springs and Woodbury, in the mountain section north of Columbus, and they seem to have fared especially well. The owners are looking forward to an unusually profitable season unless something unforeseen develops.

GOVERNOR TO SPEAK AT GREENSBORO SCHOOL

Greensboro, Ga., May 22.—(Special.) Governor John M. Slaton will deliver the address at the commencement exercises of the Greensboro High school next Tuesday evening, May 26. He will be introduced by Judge James B. Park.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday morning at the Baptist church. Rev. Harold Major, of Milledgeville, a prominent Baptist divine will deliver the sermon. A splendid musical program has been arranged by Rev. L. E. Dutton.

The class day exercises will be held at the school auditorium, Monday evening. In addition to the regular class day features, the class will put on a little comedietta entitled, "Who's to Win Him?"

CROPS ARE SUFFERING FROM LONG DROUTH

Columbus, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—This has been the dryest spring experienced in west Georgia in years, there having been only one or two heavy rains in this section since January 1. The oat crop is the principal sufferer, having been cut rather short by the drouth, although the unusual acreage devoted to oats will overcome this shortage to a certain extent.

Cotton has not suffered from the drouth, and corn has stood it surprisingly well and is not yet injured. Farmers believe that with rains in the latter part of May or early in June, corn will be none the worse for the present lack of moisture.

Students of farming conditions point out that last year was a "dry May" year in Georgia and produced the proverbial bumper crops, and venture the prophecy that history will repeat itself.

HALL COUNTY WOMAN INJURED IN RUNAWAY

Gainesville, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Callie Dover, wife of a prominent planter of the lower end of the county, was seriously injured in a runaway here late yesterday. She had driven to town when her horse became frightened at an automobile and ran away, throwing her from the buggy.

Although her condition is critical, it is thought that she will recover.

FIRST CAR OF FLORIDA WATERMELONS IS SHIPPED

Jacksonville, Fla., May 22.—The first carload of Florida watermelons left today en route north. They were of uniformly fine shape and size, and the shippers said that from samples tested the melons this spring are of especially fine flavor and sweetness.

Norcross Commencement.

Norcross, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Commencement exercises of the Norcross public school are in full blast.

Tonight Dr. S. R. Belk, presiding elder of this, the Gainesville district, delivered his third annual school-closing address and presented the graduating class with diplomas.

The same corps of teachers has been elected by the local board of education.

An enrollment of 333 pupils is of record the past term and a bond election is now being advertised for the purpose of adding to the present inadequate school building. Dr. O. O. Simpson, Dr. A. H. Winko and L. B. DeJarnette are the local managers of school affairs.

Greensboro Teachers Named.

Greensboro, Ga., May 22.—(Special.) The mayor and council of Greensboro, which takes the place of the city board of education, convened Monday night for the purpose of electing the superintendent, principal and teachers for the term 1914-1915. The following teachers were elected:

H. B. Robertson, superintendent; A. B. Wagener, principal; Miss Charlie Mae Carter, Mrs. Ph. Robinson, Mrs. Sarah C. McWhorter of Eastman, Ga., Miss Eloise Smith, Miss Celeste Park, Miss Eva Fulton, Miss Mattie Medlin, Miss Helen Davis, Mrs. W. M. Kimbro, music department; Mrs. H. B. Robertson, expression department.

Crops Need Rain.

Lyerly, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Farmers are beginning to complain that the earth is so hard that they find it impossible to stir it and the crops are ruining for moisture. The seeds that were planted several weeks ago have not yet come up, and unless there is a rain soon the crops will have to be replanted, which would cause delay in the crops.

West Point Faculty.

West Point, Ga., May 22.—(Special.) At a meeting of the board of education this week, Miss Nell Fielder was elected to the position of sixth grade teacher, and Miss Elizabeth Quillian was elected to a position in the high school. At a previous meeting Mrs. Eunice Winston, Misses Clifford Gibson and Carrie Smyth were also elected to positions in the schools caused by the resignation of Misses Carmichael, Holtzendorf, Bryans, Nunnally and Carleton.

Chess.

St. Petersburg, May 22.—Dr. Emanuel Lasker, the world's champion chess player, today won the quintangular chess tournament, which has been in progress for several weeks. In the final round, played today, Dr. Lasker beat Alechine and Capablanca, the Cuban expert, won from Marshall.

The final score stood:

Lasker 13 1-2, Capablanca 13, Alechine 10, Tarrasch 10 1-2, Marshall 8.

TRESTLE NEAR CORDELE DAMAGED BY FLAMES

Cordele, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The railway trestle on the Seaboard across Flint river was partially destroyed by fire of unknown origin yesterday, preventing the passage of trains over the river for more than twelve hours.

Passenger trains running between Cordele and Savannah were turned around in the local yards and trains were run between Americus and the first station on the west side of the river. A train belonging to the Georgia Southwestern and Gulf made the run of the eastbound "shoo-fly" over the Seaboard road to Helena last night. About fifty feet of the trestle was destroyed.

FIRST USE OF RESINOL STOPS TERRIBLE ITCH

When Other Treatments Gave No Relief. Suffered Eight Years, But Resinol Cured In a Week.

Jan. 27, 1914: "I suffered over eight years with eczema. It started in one little place and kept spreading until it covered my hands. My hands looked like they had been burned by fire and peeled off in large pieces until they were only raw flesh. I was told it was eczema. It itched and burned me so that I could not sleep at night. I tried all sorts of eczema salves and one prescription after another, but nothing gave me any relief until I tried Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment, and after the first application my hands never itched or burned again, and were well in one week. I want every sufferer from eczema to know that they can find a cure in Resinol." (Signed) Miss Ethel Scott, Milstead, Ga.

Resinol Ointment (50c. and $1.00), and Resinol Soap (25c.), stop itching instantly and speedily heal eczema, and other skin humors, pimples, dandruff, sores, burns and piles. Sold by every druggist. Don't be fooled by "substitutes" for Resinol offered by a few unscrupulous dealers. For free trial, write to Dept. 14-R, Resinol, Baltimore.

Local Speed Fans Fleeced At 'Drome Friday Night

Atlanta speed fans have just reason to boycott the Atlanta Motordrome. If they never attend another race out there, the stunt pulled off by the management last night is ample cause.

For several days the management of the local 'drome advertised that there would be a Marathon race of 26 miles 385 yards, with every rider on the track. They also advertised that Captain Morty Graves would try for the track record. They also advertised that an automobile would circle the track.

None of the events as advertised took place, and in substituting a program of short races, the motordrome management queered themselves for good and for all. The crowds have been poor at all the races, and memories of substitutions from last season of a bill advertised is the main cause.

Just why none of the events as advertised were pulled off will require a lot of explaining and rectifying before the crowd that was out last night will assemble at the track again. After last night's performance our tip is that the motordrome management better sell the track for kindling wood.

The results were:

CARRANZA, THE SPHINX.

To all practical purposes, Huerta already is eliminated. Whether he retires voluntarily or by force, his teeth have been drawn. The real key to the settlement of the Mexican situation by peace rather than arms is Carranza. And Carranza is as much sphinx as key.

Carranza is reputed to be the executive and diplomatic brains of the revolution now nearing a successful conclusion.

Just what proportion of credit to allot to Villa is as yet a matter of speculation, since best observers are not in agreement. The more reliable experts agree that without Carranza, Villa could have done nothing, and that without Villa; Carranza would still be waging obscure guerrilla warfare in one of the remote Mexican states.

This opinion takes cognizance of the fact that the task of keeping together the jarring and antithetical elements among the constitutionalists and the task of welding rag-tag "irregulars" and former bandits into an effective fighting machine, call for two separate types of ability.

Carranza, it is claimed, has a wonderful knowledge of the composite Mexican character as well as of national problems. It is he, according to this viewpoint, that has ironed out differences and engineered the deals that kept the troops supplied with munitions and supplies. Villa, self-educated and barbarous in instinct, knows the peon-soldier from the ground up, has a native military genius of high order and personal hatreds, urging him to the top of his strength and resources.

These hypotheses come nearer explaining than any other why one man sits back safe near the American border and calmly issues orders to the other one who is bearing the brunt of things at the front. They do not afford us very much light on Carranza, as to his probable attitude in the coming crisis. Within a few days, weeks at the outside, Carranza will be in position to dictate terms to all Mexico. Is he equipped to formulate a program that will look to the solution of the agrarian, educational and administrative problems that underlie the whole revolution? Will he accept the co-operation of our country, or will he resent and resist it as gratuitous interference?

Baffling, the situation still is fascinating. At each fresh turn, the wisdom of President Wilson's deliberate methods is newly vindicated.

TWO MASTERS OF THE ART.

Which is the better publicity expert—Roosevelt or Wilson? The query is pertinent by reason of the Colonel's return to the first page, and by reason of Mr. Wilson's somewhat unusual course, for a presidential incumbent, in being interviewed by a magazine on a critical current topic. "Sam" Blythe has, in The Saturday Evening Post of this week, an illuminating conversation with the president on the Mexican situation.

Our estimate is that as between the two men, Wilson is by far the more effective master of publicity, and that is taking into account the now conceded fact that publicity is a legitimate and imperative factor in politics and statesmanship.

As a master of publicity, Roosevelt often creates about as much friction as he does conviction. He appeals to emotion rather than to reason, and is apt to try to make the spectacular element do duty also for solid argument.

Wilson has neither of these traits. He knows just as much as does Roosevelt about the proper values of publicity, as to time and place. He knows the value of employing the unusual. He has shown that, at every turn, from the reading of his messages to his remarkable self-revelation before the National Press club. He is thorough master of whatever subject he discusses. His method is persuasive rather than explosive. His idea appears to be to convince rather than to rub the wrong way. Come back at him, and he does not lose his temper, and if he does show the slightest symptoms of heat it does not impair the clearness of his faculties. He is not unmindful of the spectacular, but he uses it rather as a servant and adjunct than as the end itself.

The two reach the public by different methods, but both certainly are masters of the art of knowing how to get the public ear.

A BALL GAME FOR ATLANTA.

A ball game that means a great deal to the city of Atlanta will be played next Wednesday afternoon at Ponce de Leon, as one of the regular series between the clubs of this city and Mobile. The proceeds of the game are to go to the Ad Men's Club of Atlanta, to aid in advertising this city at the international convention of the ad men, to be held soon in Toronto, Canada.

Each year the clubs from various cities attending the convention vie with each other in putting on unique and spectacular "stunts" to draw attention to their respective municipalities. The work of the local organization in this connection has done much to advertise Atlanta from Maine to California. It is especially desirable that a good showing be made this year to get the benefit of the cumulative publicity from grand opera and Shriner weeks.

The ad men plan to make a vigorous campaign for the international convention to be held in Atlanta in 1916. They need funds, both for their advertising campaign and for their campaign for the convention. Every paid admission to the park next Wednesday means a contribution to the sinews of war. In addition to seeing a good ball game, the patron will know he is doing something definitely to promote the welfare of Atlanta.

UNDOING A BLUNDER.

The diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, just passed by the house, makes provision for the purchase of embassy and legation grounds and buildings in several foreign countries. The chief criticism is that money is not supplied to decently house all our more important foreign representatives.

It has for many years been a reproach to the dignity of the American government that it should compel the men who represent its authority abroad to supply themselves with dwellings and official quarters or to live in the slovenly style. The custom would have been bad enough if it stopped here. But by neglecting to vote our diplomats maintenance accounts commensurate with the importance of their offices, we made it necessary to almost exclusively confine our diplomatic representation to rich men.

The condition sprung up, of course, originally out of our extreme democratic ideas, the reasoning being that the greatest republic on earth should not affect gaudy trappings in rivalry with old-world royalty. That theory was well enough so long as America occupied a backwoods position, so to speak, among the nations. But since we have become a world-power there has been no excuse for it, and instead of bolstering our pride it has been a source of humiliation to all right-thinking Americans.

It is well that this blunder is on the way to correction. If we have so far achieved perspective at home as to make decent provision for our presidents, and even supply some of our lesser officials with automobiles and private Turkish baths, certainly we can afford to uphold the dignity of the United States abroad.

IN LIVELY PENNSYLVANIA.

Boise Penrose, on the republican ticket; A. Mitchell Palmer, on the democratic, and Gifford Pinchot, on the progressive, are the United States senatorial nominations the people of Pennsylvania made the other day at their first direct primary.

The nominations foreshadow one of the most heated and spectacular campaigns in the political history of the Keystone State. And when it is remembered that plentiful thrills were supplied in the past by those politicians who were venturesome enough perennially to go up against the Quay or Penrose machines it will be seen the statement means something.

The senatorial election in Pennsylvania ought to be valuable as affording a fairly conclusive test of strength between republicans, democrats and progressives. All three candidates are about the strongest selections their parties could have made. Penrose, though of the political school at present discredited, has been so frightened by change of sentiment as in a measure to mend his ways and make a fairly effective senator. A. Mitchell Palmer, now a representative from Pennsylvania, is one of the strongest democrats in the house, and has upon many occasions been the spokesman for the administration. Gifford Pinchot, former forester, and Fidus Achates to Roosevelt, is too well-known to need introduction.

Not one of the candidates is a poor man, though it is probable Pinchot and Penrose lead Mitchell Palmer in standpoint of wealth. Before the contest is closed all will need whatever help they can get from money legitimately expended. The fight is to be, of course, on national issues. When the ballots are cast, the political expert ought to be able to make a fairly accurate deduction of the status of the three parties, and of the popular standing of the administration.

CONSTITUTION STORY AND GEORGIA COW PEAS FIGURE IN FAR ALASKA

On January 27 last The Constitution published an interesting article on cow peas written at the request of The Constitution by W. M. Rowland, of Augusta, Ga., who is one of the best authorities on cow peas in the south. He has received as a result of that article letters from all over the country. Now, four months after, comes one from a Georgia resident in Alaska, showing the spread of The Constitution and the reputation of the Georgia cow pea.

Editor Constitution: I enclose one of the many echoes I have received from my article in The Constitution on cow peas. I think the enclosed would be of interest to a great many people and at the same time remind them of the great value of cow peas even in Alaska and of The Atlanta Constitution letting all the earth know about them.

WILL M. ROWLAND.

Augusta, Ga.

From Alaska.

Following is the letter to which Mr. Rowland refers:

"W. M. Rowland, Esq., the Cow Pea Man, Augusta, Ga.—Dear Sir: Enclosed please find my official check on the First National Bank of Fairbanks, Alaska, payable at Seattle, Wash., for $5. I am United States marshal, appointed by Mr. Wilson, and you can tell your bankers that they need not hesitate about cashing this check; it is good at the United States depository at Seattle, Wash.

"I want you to please send me the worth of this check in cow peas. I read your very interesting article in The Atlanta Constitution of January 27, 1914, and as I know something about cow peas I enjoyed your article very much.

"I am a native of Georgia myself, was born and raised at Cartersville, in Bartow county, and inherited a plantation from my mother, on the Etowah river. I left Cartersville, however, many years ago, and have lived in the Klondike and Alaska for the past 17 years. While my residence is not far from the arctic circle, you would be surprised at the splendid gardens we can raise. There is no country in the world that will produce more or better cabbage, cauliflower, radishes, turnips, carrots, lettuce, beets, garden peas and celery than in this country. We raise from two to three hundred bushels of potatoes to the acre; we also raise wheat-hay and oat-hay, but practically no attention has been paid to agriculture in a farming way. Everybody has a nice garden, but few people farm, for the reason that our cheapest labor gets $8 per day, and one cannot raise farming truck at a profit and hire laborers at that price.

"As I stated above, I am a Georgian and have seen lots of cow peas raised and am very desirous of trying them in this country. If the peas mature in this country I can assure you a big trade, because they make good hog feed and there are a great many hogs in this country, and you can get all the land you want for the asking.

"If these peas are sent in immediately by the following directions, I may get them in time over the trail, otherwise they would come after the opening of navigation by river boat and I would not receive them until late in the summer, which would be too late to be of any use this year.

"Now, I want you to send them immediately by parcel post directed to me in care of J. A. Rockafellow, Chitina, Alaska, and I will have him forward them over the trail by stage to Fairbanks.

"Will you kindly do this little favor with as much dispatch as possible for an old Georgian, whom I assure you will greatly appreciate the kindness. I am,

"Yours very truly,

"L. T. ERWIN.

"Fairbanks, Alaska."

These peas were promptly forwarded to Alaska as directed, the best maturing early variety being selected, and $1.15 charged for one-half bushel. The parcel post charge on the one-half bushel was $3.84, which is interesting as showing the distance and the cost of this service, as well as the desire of our Georgian to plant cow peas in Alaska soil.

No Sex Divergence In Brain or Salary

Editor Constitution: With opera week passed and the Shriners gone, one sees left another up-to-dateness in the shape of internal progress. It is with genuine gratification that one sees so practically demonstrated by our city fathers a progressive justness which has eliminated the old worn-out idea that there is a sex in brain. At last our city will treat men and women alike, financially, the men and women who have to so large an extent the moulding of our future Atlantans—our public school teachers.

Sometimes it takes ages for right to conquer, but conquer it will in the end. It is claimed that women do not give the same efficiency as men and, therefore, are not entitled to the same pay. Did you ever think that perhaps the very reason why the woman did not give the same efficiency was because she was without sufficient funds to keep her brain and body in good working condition? Think over it. Verily the world is advancing, ethically, and what is considered right today, by comparatively sane people, will make these same people blush for shame tomorrow. Let the alertness to popular demand go on.

The Song of the Camp.

"Give us a song!" the soldiers cried,
The outer trenches guarding,
When the heated guns of the camps allied
Grew weary of bombarding.

There was a pause. A guardsman said:
"We storm the fort tomorrow;
Sing while we may; another day
Will bring enough of sorrow."

They sang of love, and not of fame;
Forgot was Britain's glory;
Each heart recalled a different name,
But all sang "Annie Laurie."

Voice after voice caught up the song,
Until its tender passion
Rose like an anthem, rich and strong—
Their battle-eve confession.

Dear girl, her name he dared not speak,
But, as the song grew louder,
Something upon the soldier's cheek
Washed off the stains of powder.

And once again a fire of hell
Rained on the Russian quarters,
With scream of shot, and burst of shell,
And bellowing of the mortars!

And Irish Nora's eyes are dim
For a singer, dumb and gory;
And English Mary mourns for him
Who sang of "Annie Laurie."

Sleep soldiers! still in honored rest
Your truth and valor wearing;
The bravest are the tenderest,
The loving and the daring.

—BAYARD TAYLOR.

My Wife.

By ERNEST NEAL.

Up to this hour my boast hath been
That naught could stir my soul beyond
The power of tongue or pen's expression;
That thoughts, however bright or dark,
Can breathe their shock and thrill in words that burn.
But as I dwell upon thy name,
And all thy life hath been, and is, and
Must be unto me—a school girl's tender smiles—
A maiden's priceless love—a bride's first
Kiss of trust—a woman's full-blown faith,
A mother's care, my first-born smiling on her knee—
The years of joy and grief, of light and gloom,
Of life and death, of fortune's golden smiles
Or hard times knocking at the door—
And thou the fount of ever pure and holy love,
The source of all my strength, my muse is dumb
To all the nothings of poetic lore,
And Fancy's glowing dreams are weak before
Two potent words whose soul is all my life,
A theme within itself the sweetest song—
"my wife."

All Along the Line With George Fitch

MILES STANDISH.

Miles Standish was a short, round Englishman, according to the most reliable portraits extant. He was born in Lancashire in 1584 and received a careful education in chopping, hewing, sticking, stabbing and annihilation in general by means of the sword. He was also carefully instructed in the use of the blunderbus, a short, fat gun which when fired, shot half a bushel of slugs in one direction and kicked its owner twice as far in the other. It is also said that Standish learned to read in his youth, but this was not regarded as important at that time.

When the Pilgrims left England and went to Holland, Standish went with them, though he was not a Pilgrim himself. He embarked in the Mayflower with the other 11,876 people, who, according to our best families of today, came to this country in that little vessel, and when the colony of Plymouth was established in 1620 he was chosen commander-in-chief and was instructed to form an army of defense.

This sounds imposing and one is inclined to pity the poor savages until we run across the information that Miles Standish's "army" consisted of about twenty men when it was in good health and that with this tremendous force he had to overawe and subdue more Indians than Tammany Hall ever mustered in a parade. This was a very perilous job owing to the danger involved in firing the blunderbuses, but Standish never flinched. One after another, the Indian tribes were bluffed and finally but one hostile band remained. It was large and well armed and was determined to eradicate the white men. Standish therefore assembled his army, which at that time numbered eight men, and marched through the wilderness to Wessagusset where he fell upon the Indians and chased them off the map.

Standish lived to a good old age and performed many useful tasks for the colony. He wore wide leather trousers and a hat big enough to boil soap in, with a silver buckle in front of it and can now be seen at his best on top of a 100-foot monument at Duxbury, Mass., where he died in 1656. He is popularly supposed to have been turned down by a young lady by the name of Priscilla in favor of John Alden, but this rumor is said to have been started by Priscilla herself in order to bring John to time.

PAREGORIC.

Paregoric is a substitute for brains, patience and exertion, which is used with great success by thousands of parents who are not enthusiastic about the fact.

That is—the use of paregoric is a great success as far as the parents go. It gives them more peace and quiet. It is not so successful from the baby's standpoint. Many a baby has been given paregoric instead of medical attention and discipline until it has contracted the habit of not waking up at all. Shortly after this the undertaker arrives and great sympathy is expressed by all hands for the bereaved father and mother—whereas they should really be congratulated. They have gotten their chief desire—peace and more sleep.

Paregoric, however, is also very useful when applied to adults. Only in this case it is not poured out of a bottle into a spoon. When a minority stockholder becomes very much disturbed and howls until the directors of the company cannot sleep nights he is often given paregoric in the shape of a check for his stock at ten points more than the market price. This has a marvelous effect upon him. He cannot be heard with the keenest ears after he has had his dose.

When a politician has been neglected by his party he often organizes a league of unterrified patriots and heads an insurrection against the bosses. For several weeks he charges up and down the street shouting so loud that the central committee could not hear itself think even if it wanted to think. In this case the patient is usually given a dose of oil. It is wonderful how effective oil is in a case of this kind. Appointing a man oil inspector for ninety days has often put him to sleep so effectively that he has not waked up enough to kick again for several years.

Paregoric is often upon the voter, too, with great success. A slight reduction of taxes often causes him to close his tired eyes and remain oblivious for years to the need of better sewers, pavements and morals in his cities.

Altogether paregoric is a great curse: It should be wiped out in the interest of better babies and better business and better politics.

MUD.

Mud is earth which has been put in soak by nature.

Mud is the most valuable thing in the world. After earth has been mud for a while it produces crops without which mankind would curl up and die like a baby sparrow on a hot doorstep.

However, since man does not raise crops on the country roads he has no particular use for mud in that particular spot.

All over the central part of this nation the country roads are paved with mud. Mud makes the worst pavement in the world. A five-mile mud pavement in March is as effective as a two-inch oak jail door for keeping a farmer at home. There are hundreds of millions of bushels of grain on the farms of America in the early spring, but they do not have much effect upon the cost of living because they are separated from the market by several miles of roads which clasp the farm wagons to their bosom with a glad gurgle and refuse to release them until three teams are hitched on.

Wherever mud is used for making roads the farmer sells his grain when the roads are firmest instead of when the market is firmest.

American mud is extremely useless on the country roads. It is even more useless on the city streets. It is hard to work up a worry over the fact that the American business man does not worship old masters and broken nosed statuary. But it is easy to become distressed over the aesthetic taste of a man who will wade down town ankle deep in last winter's mud all spring without calling around at the city hall with a rope and pleading to be allowed to hang the administration.

The efficiency of American city government can be measured in some ways by the amount of mud on the American city street. If the streets are profusely decorated with mud some of it will almost certainly get upon the reputations of the alderman before very long.

No Wall Street Swindles.

(By Jasper, in Leslie's.)

The Sterling Debenture corporation and the Oxford Linen Mills are defending themselves from the charge of using the mails to defraud. It was brought out in court that $750,000 had been spent to promote the sale of the Oxford Linen Mills stock. Nearly 9,000,000 glowing prospectuses, promising tremendous profits, were mailed to hundreds of thousands of clergymen and others all over the country. The postage alone cost $260,000. In this way millions were gathered from the credulous, who believed that they were to have great profits in an enterprise which is now bankrupt.

None of these swindlers has any connection with the New York stock exchange. If any member of that body or of any other reputable stock exchange were charged with using the mails to defraud, he would immediately be brought up on charges and if proved he would be expelled from the exchange. Yet, all over this country an impression prevails that the bunco swindlers have their headquarters in the stock exchange and that Wall street is the breeding place for every faker and fraudulent mining, oil, plantation or other scheme. There is not the slightest ground for this suspicion, but it is difficult to get the public to understand the truth.

DAILY GRIST from the STATE'S POLITICAL GRIND

W. J. HARRIS EXPRESSES CONFIDENCE THAT HE WILL BE ELECTED

William J. Harris, director of the census and candidate for governor, spent Friday in Atlanta, leaving late in the afternoon for his home in Cedartown, where he will today make the first speech of his campaign. He will spend Sunday in Rome and will return to Atlanta Monday. Mr. Harris' resignation as director of the census has not yet been accepted. He expressed himself with great enthusiasm regarding his candidacy and predicted unquestioned victory for himself at the polls, stating that he had no idea the race would be thrown into the convention. He said:

"I am going to begin a whirlwind campaign such as hasn't been seen in Georgia in many years. As nearly as possible I shall visit every county in the state and meet the voters face to face. The people of Georgia are with me in my fight for better pay for the common school teachers, longer terms for the pupils and cheaper school books.

"I start in the race with a wide personal acquaintanceship all over Georgia. I know five voters where Hoke Smith in his first race knew but one.

"The time has come when the people of Georgia must elect their governor and not be dictated to by the railroads as to who shall be chosen. No railroad lawyer is fitted to be governor of Georgia. The people realize that a business man, with business training, is needed to see that the W. & A. railroad is properly leased. The road may be leased any time prior to 1919. The present legislature can lease it if it sees fit."

Mr. Harris stated that he proposed to send out circulars to all school teachers and that Harris meetings would be held in every schoolhouse in the state.

GOVERNOR SLATON'S COMMUNICATION WILL BE DELAYED SEVERAL DAYS

Owing to the fact that he was compelled to be in Americus Thursday and had to fill an engagement in Barnesville Friday night, Governor Slaton has been unable to complete his communication to the people of Georgia, in which he promises to say some very peppery things about those candidates who have been attacking him. Those who have read extracts from his communication state that it is not lacking in ginger and pepper. It will be completed in a few days.

T. G. Harvey, of Jakin, has written the governor the following letter, which is but one out of many similar ones he is daily receiving:

"Replying to your letter of last week inquiring as to your race for state senator in this county, I wish to state that your chances are extremely good here. I intend to support you myself, likewise my three sons. The Early County News, the official organ of the county, has taken a bold stand for you. On yesterday I took a ballot of all the business men of Jakin, and they were all unanimously for you. Your chances are good. I wish you God speed. I hope that I may be able to serve you."

WARREN GRICE MAKES SPEECHES AT TWO SCHOOLS NEXT WEEK

Attorney General Warren Grice, who is a candidate to succeed himself, will deliver the principal address before the Locust Grove institute Monday night, and before the Gordon institute Tuesday night.

BETS BEING MADE ON JOE BROWN, THE SILENT MAN OF MARIETTA

Interest in what former Governor Joseph M. Brown is going to do and when he is going to do it has reached that acute stage that people are actually making bets of hats and boxes of cigars on it. Now, there is a strict state law against betting on elections, and Joseph M. Brown, who is a consistent member of the Baptist church, will, no doubt, be shocked to learn that such a simple—not to say rare—thing as silence in these days and times should cause people to gamble! But such is the case. However, as much as the former governor may deplore the evil practices of his supporters, the chances are about 1,000,000 to 1 that he is not going to be hurried into an expression.

June 1 has been arbitrarily stated as the date for Little Joe to speak. Some have put the date at July 1.

Suppose that the humor of the present situation should appeal to him so strongly that he did not speak at all! Wouldn't the strain be terrific about July 15? Well, rather!

But he will have something to say ere long—of that you can be assured.

ACTIVITY OF THE PROHIBITIONISTS IS CAUSING MANY TO WORRY

Whenever the prohibtion question is injected into a campaign it proves the truth of the assertion that language was intended to conceal thoughts. Flush an aspiring and perspiring politician suddenly and point the prohibition question mark at him if you want to see the finest kind of an exhibition of glittering generalities. Even the most liberal of men—men whose conversation is ordinarily that of yea and nay—find the English language one of the most elastic of tongues. Words roll from their lips in a perfect torrent, but they are words at best.

Before the Anti-Saloon League of Georgia gets through with the present likely batch of candidates there is going to be some of the liveliest side-stepping and some of the most adroit parrying of words ever seen in this neck o' the woods!

JUDGE HARRIS RETURNS HOME AND WILL START ACTIVE CAMPAIGN

Macon, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Macon has been too engrossed with the Georgia jubilee to pay much attention to politics this week albeit there has been considerable politicking going on, several of the candidates for various offices spending awhile in the city during the week.

Macon people are watching with interest the word battle between William J. Harris and friends and supporters of Judge N. E. Harris and Randolph Anderson, candidates for governor. Judge Harris' friends declare that nothing the director of the census can say against the Macon man will hurt him in any way, because the people of Georgia know him and respect him as a high-toned, Christian gentleman. The dragging of the railroad bugaboo into the governor's race they look upon as the work of a man pretty hard put to it to find something on which to base his candidacy. Interest in the shots being fired back and forth is enhanced by the fact that Joe Hill Hall, of Macon, is one of those on the firing line, and Georgia people have a habit of listening when the "Lion of Bibb" speaks, for they know he has something to say.

Judge Harris returned home from Oklahoma City yesterday after spending two weeks there attending the Methodist conference. It is expected that he will pitch right in now and his campaign will soon begin to take on definite shape. He is busy now attending to correspondence which has accumulated during his absence and which has brought many assurances of support from all over the state.

Felder and Cooper Campaigning.

The two local senatorial candidates, Thomas S. Felder and John R. Cooper, spoke during the present week, the former in Screven county, at Sylvania, and the latter at Dublin. Both had splendid crowds. Both are to take to a stump again during the coming week and both will visit north Georgia. Mr. Felder is to make his tour in an automobile, stopping at towns and villages en route between his speaking points. Monday he speaks at Clayton, Rabun county; Wednesday, at Blue Ridge, Fannin county; Saturday at Goshen, Oconee county; Monday, June 1, at Morgan, Calhoun county, and Wednesday, June 3, at Fort Gaines, Clay county.

Mr. Cooper will speak at Monroe, Walton county, Monday, and will jump to Clayton, Rabun county, Wednesday. A court term will be in session at Clayton during the coming week and it will be a good time for the candidates to get a hearing.

Think Bartlett Won't Run.

The silence of Congressman Bartlett as to his intentions in the sixth district race this year is leading more and more Bibb county folks to the conclusion that J. W. Wise, of Fayetteville, is to have no opposition this year. Mr. Wise was in the city a copule of days during the Georgia jubilee and he received many assurances of support here. Two local lawyers with well-known political records have told him that they are going to look after his interests here. It is not at all certain that a Bibb county man, should he enter the race now, could even carry this county. There is a good deal of talk like that going around and many people are outspoken in their intention to support Wise against all comers.

Judge Thomas, of Valdosta, stopped in Macon for a few hours Thursday night, long enough to get a glimpse of the tangoers on Cherry street and confer with a few of his close friends here. If he told any of them his intentions regarding the gubernatorial race, they are pledged to secrecy, but the belief is growing here that at no distant date there will be a shock felt down around Valdosta, caused by the force of Judge Thomas' panama when it falls in the ring.

The New Broom in China.

The new Tu-tu evidently means business. He says he has come down to put things to rights. He has sent about one thousand soldiers down to the Hinghua section of the province and they are marching on into the bandit district and evidently are doing the work. The men who reported that the sixteenth emperor was dead, and then to prove it dug up an old corpse which had been buried for at least scores of years, has been sentenced to decapitation. It is reported that he is also on the hunt of the $130,000 which the former Tu-tu is short.

Evangelists Will Make an Effort Tonight to Reach Those Who Will Not Attend Church Services.

Street meetings will be held tonight by the Baptist campaign workers and evangelists at several places in the downtown districts, in an attempt to reach those who will not attend the services in the churches and in the theaters.

The first will be held at Broad and Marietta streets, beginning at 7:30 o'clock and will be led by Evangelist L. C. Wolfe, assisted by the campaign quartette, who will furnish the music. This meeting will last for an hour, when the evangelist and singers will go to Decatur street and Central avenue, where another service will be held.

Two other street meetings will be held, the first at Marietta and Walton streets, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Evangelist T. O. Reese, and singer M. J. Babbitt will have charge of this service. The second will be held at 8 o'clock at Decatur street and North Boulevard by Evangelist H. C. Smith, and singer T. A. Henry.

Invite All to Attend.

For some time before the meetings committees will mingle with the Saturday night crowds, and invite them to attend the street services, and during the time they are going on, personal workers will be busy among those who attend.

No central meeting will be held at the First church Saturday morning, in order to give the workers a short rest. A number of mass meetings which will be held at various centers throughout the city Sunday will keep them busy for that day.

The meeting at the Bijou theater Friday was the most successful that has been held there. A score of penitents from the congregation which gathered from the streets to listen to the exhortations of Evangelist Wolfe came to the front of the theater and asked for prayer at the conclusion of the meeting.

From the various churches were brought encouraging reports Friday to the central meeting at the First Baptist church. An appeal has been made for all the business men in the downtown district to allow their employees who desire to attend the services at the Bijou theater to do so. The meeting which will be held there Saturday at noon is expected to be the most interesting of the campaign.

The co-operation of all Christian people in Atlanta with the Baptists in their attempt to effect a sweeping revival in Atlanta is being urged by the leaders of the campaign.

Will Redouble Efforts.

Preparations for the continuation of the revival services and central meetings next week with redoubled efforts are being made. The point of attack this week, according to the evangelists, has been the Christians, and members of the church who are not feeling the interest in the meetings that they should feel, and who are not co-operating with the leaders in the campaign as earnestly as is desired.

Approximately seventy-five conversions and accessions to the membership of the church is the tangible result of the campaign so far. It has been stated by the leaders that the first week of the revival was hardly expected to bring the results which would be expected later.

Dr. Bruner, who is in charge of the meetings, stated that he was gratified with the results of the campaign thus far.

"It has exceeded my expectations, and I believe we have in store a glorious revival." And to the members of the campaign committee about him, he exclaimed: "Let us go into the fight with our armor on, and win a glorious revival for the glory of God."

EUGENE R. BLACK TO GIVE ADDRESS AT LAW GRADUATION

Announcement has just been made by the Atlanta Law school that Eugene R. Black, the well-known Atlanta attorney of the firm of McDaniel & Black, has been chosen to deliver the graduation address to the senior class at the commencement exercises on the evening of June 15.

About twenty-five young men will graduate at that time and will become members of the Georgia bar by virtue of their diplomas, a special law passed by the legislature admitting all graduates of the school to practice. At the graduation exercises one of the seniors, soon to be chosen, will make the valedictory address, and the diplomas will be awarded by Hamilton Douglas, dean of the school.

Of especial interest to the public will be the two oratorical contests that will be held by the students within the next two weeks. The first contest will be a public debate on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should assume a protectorate over Mexico," and a $20 gold medal, offered by Robert C. Alston, will be awarded to the best debator. This contest will take place on June 3. The other contest will take place the following week, in which about ten of the students will deliver original orations for a $20 medal, offered by the faculty. In addition to these contests, the seniors are competing for a special thesis prize.

Rev. George Stuart, whose reputation as a lecturer is nation-wide, will be heard in Atlanta Thursday evening, May 28, at St. Paul's Methodist church, on the subject, "Lop-Sided Folks."

Mr. Stuart intended to have taken part in the revival meetings which were held at St. Paul's church a few weeks ago, but was unable to come to Atlanta at that time, as a consequence of which he has consented to deliver his lecture there next week.

Mr. Stuart was an associate of the late Sam Jones, and accompanied him on his trips to various places where he conducted revival meetings for a number of years. He is one of the most powerful speakers in the south, and a record audience is expected to greet him on the occasion of his visit to Atlanta.

Thomas Friday afternoon gave out his first official statement relative to the boom that hundreds of his friends and admirers have inaugurated for him for governor, a boom that is sweeping south Georgia in intense interest and has resulted in overwhelming pledges of support.

Judge Thomas, asked if he would be a candidate, said:

"I feel assured that south Georgia is ready to indorse and support a south Georgian for the governorship. Conditions in north and middle Georgia are now in a state of confusion and I am looking into the situation there before I shall make any announcement."

While he has the matter seriously under consideration it is known that he will not make any statement until he has thoroughly investigated the situation.

JENNINGS' BOOTS KICK GAME AWAY

Edited By DICK JEMISON

OAKLAND WINNER GRAMMAR TITLE

For the first time since there has been a grammar league in organization Formwalt was nosed out of the championship when they lost the final game of the series to Oakland yesterday afternoon at Piedmont park by the count of 8 to 7.

However, Oakland had to travel at their very best to win this game from Formwalt, and ten innings were required before the victory was secured by the Oakland team.

Formwalt, in the fourth inning, made four runs, and led the Oakland team by one run until the eighth inning, when Oakland came back and secured three runs. Formwalt then tied the count in their half of the ninth, and also made one more in the tenth. However, Oakland came back and made the necessary two runs and won the game, and also the championship of the city.

For three straight years Formwalt has won this honor, and had a good chance to cop this year, winning the first game of the series.

Oakland had a great team, and after winning fifteen straight games on the north side during the season, simply could not allow Formwalt again to cop the championship.

Spoil Good Preacher.

The main reason the Gulls failed to make it four straight over the Crackers was due to the hurling of one Key Perryman, alias "Preacher" Perryman, a big, slim guy, with a wonderful fast ball. Perryman stood on beam end out there, rose to his full height, which is incidentally some rise, and actually threw 'em past our boys before they could get set to hit. Perryman is studying for the ministry, and while we do not want to appear in the role of leading one from the straight and narrow, if he chooses to follow it, they're ruining a good pitcher when they make a preacher out of this fellow.—Mobile Register.

Two Straight for Pels Who Cop Game in Ninth; Jennings' Errors Costly

By Sam L. Gilbert.

New Orleans, May 22.—(Special.)—Dixie Walker, blushing bridegroom, was a lucky gink today when the league leaders slipped a second lacing to the Crackers, 4 to 3.

Two boots by Jennings allowed the locals to register their first two runs. The visitors made their three off Walker's extreme liberality, and then stopped. Ten Crackers languished as against five Pelicans.

We repeat, the newly spliced lad was lucky, but at the same time he was awful mean to attack in most of the pinches. Johnny Dobbs and Billy Smith enlivened proceedings, although goodness knows things sizzled enough with the score a tie after the fourth.

Old Breit took exception to Joey Dunn's language in the eighth, when Joey insisted Breit had an eye like a potato on balls and strikes. Dunn was ordered to efface himself, but continued to state that the two balls called on Starr, first up in the eighth, were in the groove.

Billy and Johnny.

Bill galloped from the visitors' bench to the plate and spoke a few. Then Dobbs left the coachers' box and came a-running with repeated declarations of Smith being a bench manager, and adding his own to Breit's order for Bill to beat it back to the zoo.

Bill was terribly riled and John was very excited. Players stepped between them and stopped the cruel war before a blow was struck. Starr popped a fly to Welchonce and Bill felt better.

Here's an alibi lest we forget. Elliott Dent was suffering from a disorder, due to change of water, only a little less than was Flanagan, who did not even have on a uniform. The invalid showed a lot of stuff at that, though he didn't shine in the summary as did Walker. Dent never whiffed or walked a batsman. Walker fanned eight and passed nine.

Dent started a nice double play and fielded fine, also batted well. Hendryx touched the big twirler for a triple in the first inning, but was held on third until two were down and then counted on Jennings' bobble of Burns' roller.

Jennings fumbled Northern's skipper in the second and a sacrifice by Barbare and Higgins' single scored him. Walker hit to Dent and a double play resulted.

Present to Bridegroom.

Before Walker's innocuous knock a silver service was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Walker receiving the bridal present at the plate amid much applause.

When Walker went out to pitch, opening the third, he felt the milk of human kindness pervading his being, though some folks thought he had been somewhat rattled by the gift of his teammates. He grinned cheerfully and walked Dent. McConnell sacrificed, but Kircher promenaded, and when Welchonce rolled, Walker, the philanthropist, heaved high over first and Dent and Kircher tallied. Long was thrown out by Barbare, but Walker pinked Holland, filling the bases.

The bridegroom briskly issued passes to the next two Crackers, forcing and walked Jennings, stuffing the sacks. He walked Eibel, transporting Welchonce home. Dunn struck out.

The Pels tied it on singles by Burns, Lindsay and Northern in the fourth, and won it in the ninth on Lindsay's two-timer to left that Long handled badly, Northern's sacrifice and Barbare's scratch single, which bounded just over Dent and which Jennings couldn't retrieve in time.

No Stealing.

Neither team did any stealing. One Cracker and three Pels tried burglary vainly. Patience of the visitors was commendable, for they seemed unable to deliver any telling blows. Jennings, of course, is a popular man in New Orleans tonight. Welchonce was the fielding star. Lindsay twinkled with the willow.

All ladies and children were admitted free and the crowd was immense, but not a circumstance to the grouch Billy Smith is nursing. Bill hasn't closed for his new twirlers, though he hopes to announce the additions immediately.

Mobile, Ala., May 22.—Mobile made it two straight over Chattanooga by again winning today, score 7 to 4, in a slow and listless game. Sline was hit often and hard and though Keeley was effective in preventing hits, his wildness kept him in constant danger, the hitting of Perry, O'Dell and Flick featuring, the latter driving in two runs for his team with a home run over right field fence in the eighth.

Court Holds Sunday Ball In District of Columbia Does Not Violate a Law

Washington, May 22.—Sunday baseball in Washington was made possible today by a decision of Justice Gould in the District of Columbia supreme court that there exists no law to prevent it. The decision was given in a suit brought by officials of the Federal league.

Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington American league team, said he did not believe the Americans would take advantage of the opportunity owing to adverse public sentiment.

Kirk Newell Is Appointed Head Coach at Riverside

Gainesville, Ga., May 22.—(Special.) Kirk Newell, Auburn's star quarterback last season, and captain of the southern football champions, has been signed by the Riverside Military academy authorities to coach their football team next fall.

Newell has been appointed head coach, the deal being made today by President Sandy Beaver, of the local school.

Newell is at present playing second base and managing the Opelika club, of the Georgia-Alabama league. He will, in view of his experience in this capacity, assist Coach Frank Anderson next spring in coaching the baseball team.

Newell is not new to the duties of a football coach. For four years he coached class teams at Auburn and every year the team that he coached won the class pennant.

Newell is given the credit by Donahue of being his first aide, and the man that developed the raw material at Auburn into the finished products that Atlanta and other southern football fans saw in the elevens that represented Auburn.

Riverside is to be congratulated on securing Newell to coach her athletic teams and with him at the head of things next fall and assisting Frank Anderson next spring, athletic affairs at Riverside can be expected to take an upward trend.

Foxen's Appeal Denied.

Cincinnati, May 2.—The national baseball commission today denied the appeal of Player W. A. Foxen, of the Birmingham club, of the Southern association, from the decision of the national board. CATCHER ENZENROTH MAY JOIN CRACKERS

Catcher Jack Enzenroth, now with the St. Louis Browns, may be a Cracker within a few days. The deal is being consummated by wire and will probably be announced as completed today. If it is, Enzenroth will join the Crackers in Atlanta Monday.

Who Enzenroth was seemed a puzzle, and The Constitution wired St. Louis for information concerning him. Here is the reply:

"Dick Jemison, Sporting Editor The Constitution: Jack Enzenroth came to the Browns this spring upon the request of Manager Rickey. He played for Rickey at Michigan several years ago, but has been out of the game for two seasons. He showed much promise this spring. He hits well and also can throw. He worked in two games for the Browns this season and did well."

MEMPHIS TURTLES SOLD BY COLEMAN

Memphis, Tenn., May 22.—The Memphis baseball club today passed into the hands of Russell A. Gardner, a St. Louis millionaire, who will take over the club on June 1. The deal was perfected at noon, when Marlin Speed, acting for Mr. Gardner, purchased the minority stock interests and completed arrangements for the transfer of the majority stock, held by Frank P. Coleman, president of the club. No statement as to the figures involved could be obtained.

It was announced that Mike Finn would be retained as manager.

EFIRD AND PRICE BACK IN ATLANTA; STILL ON ROSTER

Jap Efird and Gil Price, Cracker twirlers, arrived in Atlanta yesterday afternoon and will remain here until the Crackers return from their present disastrous road trip.

These two flingers are still on the roster of the local club, and whether they will be disposed of or not remains to be seen and will hardly be decided upon until Manager Smith returns home.

Price blames his poor showing to date to lack of work. "I worked every third or fourth day last season and won a bunch of games. This year I'm working about every seventh day. My arm is in grand shape; I've got more stuff than I ever had in my life, and I'm going to give 'em an awful battle when they turn me loose."

Bill has not released or suspended Price and Efird; he just sent them home, as he would not need them any more in the New Orleans series. Both may continue to pitch for the team, and we hope that they come through and twirl the class of ball of which both are capable when right.

It has not been Gil's fault altogether that he has not shown, and maybe if worked more often he would find his control and win some games. Bill Smith is the sole judge of whether Price can recover his 1913 form or not, and we leave the problem with him cheerfully.

We've been for Gil ever since he came to Atlanta and Efird, too. We hope they both deliver.

MAY COTTON GAINS; OTHER MONTHS OFF

Realizing Sales and Offerings Caused a Break in Prices--The Market Closed Steady.

New York, May 22.—The cotton market met heavy realizing sales as well as scattered offerings from reactionists, during today's trading, which caused a sharp break in prices. There was enough demand, however, to absorb offeringfs at the decline and cause final rallies, with the market closing steady at a net advance of 4 points on May, although other months still showed net losses of from 3 to 14 points.

The opening was easy at a decline of 7 to 16 points on private reports that the weather was clearing in Texas and in response to disappointing cables. Liverpool was quite a big seller here and there was a good deal of liquidation, but the official forecasts for continued clear weather in the eastern belt, and showers in Texas, inspired a further outside demand, and prices rallied to within 2 or 3 points of yesterday's closing during the middle of the morning.

The detailed weather report for the Houston district showed rather less general rainfall than the previous day, however, and offerings became heavier again during the afternoon. Rather a smaller decrease in the world's visible supply than expected may also have contributed to the selling movement, but new crops months were relatively weak on the decline, which carried the general list some 11 to 17 points net lower. There was covering by early sellers toward the close, which rallied new crop positions 4 or 5 points from the lowest, while a spurt of demand from many shorts sent that position above last night's closing figures.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, May 22.—The cotton market reacted from the advance today under selling, stimulated by better weather conditions in the western belt and small mill takings for the week. At times short selling was heavy, but it was generally considered around the ring that the bulk of the selling was from liquidating longs. At the lowest of the day, the trading months were 11 to 12 points under yesterday's last figures. The close was at a net loss of 8 to 11 points.

In the morning the market had a steady tone, but about noon some weakness was displayed, after the posting of mill takings of only 162,000 bales against 217,000 this week last year and 237,000 this week two years ago. Bears considered that this was the result of high prices and increased their offerings of short cotton.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, May 22.—While predictions were for unsettled weather for Texas, private advices reported clearing weather. In Liverpool the long interests seem to have been free sellers, supplying the arbitrage brokers who were selling here freely during the morning. The course of prices depends entirely upon the weather from now on. Up to now Europe has not taken alarm at the heavy rains in Texas as have our local traders who have been large buyers during the past week, in the belief that these rains foreshadow a very moderate crop not enough to supply consumption. Today our market has felt the weight of the European selling and the liquidation of some of yesterday's buyers.

John F. Black & Co.

New York, May 22.—There was very heavy profit-taking by the successful longs in the cotton market today. The advance of the last week has been so rapid that this was natural, but the market looked as little like a bear market when it was easing off a bit under this pressure, as it did when it was rapidly advancing. The replacing of the cotton sold today would mean a new high level and there was nothing in the weather news to encourage any one to sell short. The eastern belt is beginning to need rain very badly and the wet weather continues in the west. The close was steady at a decline of 11 to 12 points on the active new crop months, July was down only three points and May closed four points up.

C. F. von HERRMANN,
Section Director Weather Bureau.

Jay, Bond & Co.

New York, May 22.—Despite further rain in central and southwest Texas, together with dry weather in the central and eastern parts of the belt, the local market today was reactionary in tone and prices for the most part ruled slightly lower than yesterday's close. During the past two days the buying has been especially heavy, thus reducing the short interest, which, in turn, lessens the demand at this level and makes the market more two-sided. However, large crop ideas have undergone a material change by reason of conditions in Texas and on declines of any consequence the market will undoubtedly meet with support.

SELLING OF WHEAT LOWERED PRICES

The Market Closed Steady at a Decline — Corn and Oats Both Made Good Gains.

Chicago, May 22.—Heavy selling by an interest that was conspicuous on the buying side during the recent advance pulled down prices today in wheat. The close was unsteady, 3-8@1-2 to 5-8@3-4 under last night. Corn wound up 1-4 to 7-8 net higher, and oats with a gain of 1-4 to 5-8@3-4. In provisions the result was 5 to 10 decline.

Confident opinions that Kansas, notwithstanding the hessian fly, would raise a bumper crop, formed the chief news development with which the friends of higher prices had to struggle. It was asserted also that Kansas, Nebraska and Oklahoma would harvest nearly 4,000,000 acres more than in 1913.

Corn climbed to within easy hailing distance of the often wished for 70 mark. Continued wet weather in Argentina was mainly responsible. So far there has been no such increase of the movement to central markets as had been expected.

Oats advanced with corn, and as a result of dry weather talk. There were numerous reports of oats being plowed up, owing to excessive backwardness.

Provisions eased off, in sympathy with a break in the hog market. Apparently the decline would have been greater but for the strength of coarse grain.

WEEK'S TRADE REVIEWED BY MERCANTILE AGENCY

New York, May 22.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow that better weather and improved retail demand are the two fundamentally favorable features of this week's trade report. These first, noticed at the west last week, have advanced eastward, and the result is probably the best trade in months at retail.

Wearing apparel has figured largely in these reports, but hardware, implements and similar products have also enjoyed a better demand. Best reports as yet come from the west and northwest, but eastern reports are also more cheerful. Southern reports are rather irregular.

Industry generally seems slow to gain ground. There is still complaint of dullness and short time in the iron and steel trades, but some large sales have been made of basic pig iron, and railroads are reported buying cars or patching up old ones in anticipation of a large crop movement.

For the week: Failures, 296, against 265 last year; wheat exports, 4,786,569 bushels, against 6,471,046; bank clearings, $3,213,663,000, a gain of 1.6 per cent.

Foreign Finances.

London, May 22.—Consols for money, 74½; for account, 74 9-16.

Circulation decreased 52,308,000 francs.
Treasury deposits increased 16,137,000 francs.

BUSINESS LIGHT IN STOCK MARKET

Indifference on the Part of the Speculators and Investors Made the Day a Dull One.

New York, May 22.—Business on the stock exchange today was the smallest of any day thus far this year, the total overturn—93,600 shares — comparing with 98,000 shares on March 2, when the blizzard interrupted communication. The low ebb recorded today was due to a lack of confidence or indifference on the part of speculators and investors in virtually all the securities markets of the world.

Opening prices were a mixture of unimportant advices and declines, from which there was little change as the session progressed. Reports from the west and northwest were again favorable to crop prospects, and addresses by the heads of the United States Steel corporation held out hopes of trade betterment.

London's market was weak, with some further selling here for that account. A conservative estimate places the foreign selling here since the beginning of the year at not less than 300,000 shares. Another gold engagement of $2,000,000 for Paris was reported.

Local monetary conditions show no change, chiefly because the demand has fallen below normal proportions. Clearing house banks are expected to show a cash gain for the week and bank clearings of the country for that same period show a marked gain over the preceding week.

There was less pressure against the various speculative bonds and that list was fairly steady. Total sales $1,450,000. United States bonds unchanged on call.

Money and Exchange.

New York, May 22.—Mercantile paper 4. Sterling exchange steady; 60 days 4.8610; demand 4.8860.

Commercial bills $4.85¼.
Bar silver 57½.
Mexican dollars 45½.

Government bonds steady; railroad bonds steady.

Call money steady at 1¾@2; ruling rate 1¾; closing 1⅞@2.

Time loans steady; 60 and 90 days 2½; six months 3.

COTTON THE PAST WEEK; REVIEW OF THE MARKET

New York, May 22.—There has been a more active and general demand in the cotton market during the past week than has been witnessed for several months and new crop deliveries have sold nearly $5.00 per bale above recent low levels. Realizing became active around 12½ cents for October and December contracts and caused reaction of some 20 to 30 points from the best during today's trading, but the market absorbed heavy offerings and bullish traders continued to emphasize unfavorable crop accounts, while they also maintained that the absence of pressure from old crop supplies helped to demonstrate the necessity of favorable growing seasons. Reports of an improved demand for cotton goods probably contributed to the advance and there have been unconfirmed rumors of pending shipments from the local stock, but the advance has been led by new crop deliveries, and December contracts have sold within 23 points of July, compared with a recent difference of 89 points. The upward movement has, consequently, been chiefly attributed to apprehensions that the first government crop report on June 1 would show a condition under the ten-year average, and the southwest, owing to persistent wet weather. There have also been reports of delayed growth and germination as a result of dry weather and low temperatures east of the river, and local commission houses report that some of those advices have been accompanied by southern buying orders. Old longs are credited with having taken profits freely on the advance, however, while local bears claimed that higher prices had checked the demand from trade sources and Liverpool selling here was accompanied by rumors that continental spinners were liquidating new crop hedges in the hope of replacing profitably should the weather become more favorable.

He is to succeed Si H. Donaldson, whose resignation takes effect today. Hansell will be succeeded in the city department, which he leaves, by Nym Hurt, who now is street engineer of the construction bureau.

The salary of the superintendency which Hansell is to assume is $3,000 annually. His election was unanimous, and many words of commendation were spoken for him before the county board.

REMAINS OF STEPHENS INTERRED AT FAIRBURN

Fairburn, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The remains of Hon. J. T. Stephens, of Atlanta, formerly ordinary of this (Campbell) county, were interred here. The services at the grave were conducted by the confederate veterans of Camp Walker. Tributes were also paid to the dead soldier and citizen by Professor Richardson, of Atlanta, and Hon. A. B. Smith, of Fairburn, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends.

GIVE ART EXHIBITION IN EXECUTIVE MANSION

Pictures Will Be Shown Today Under Auspices of the Atlanta Association.

Under the auspices of the Atlanta Art association, of which Mrs. Samuel Inman is president, there will be given an exhibition of pictures at the executive mansion beginning today and continuing for two weeks.

The association is fortunate in having the co-operate interest in the exhibition of Mr. Cameron Burnside and Miss Hegersheimer, two noted southern artists at present in the city. They have directed the placing of the pictures for Mrs. Inman, and the exhibition will be ready for public view this morning.

The general exhibit has been sent to Atlanta by the American Federation of Arts, and Miss Hegersheimer and Mr. Burnside will contribute several of their pictures to the exhibition.

The central locality of the exhibition, made possible through the courtesy of Mrs. John Marshall Slaton in giving the executive mansion to the Art association, will make it possible for many to see the pictures, the exhibition to be open morning and afternoon. Committees from the Art association will be in charge.

Mrs. James Gilbert is chairman of the exhibit committee for today.

DECATUR SCHOOLS HOLD COMMENCEMENT TONIGHT

The graduating exercises of the Decatur schools were held in the DeKalb county courthouse Friday night. These exercises marked the end of an interesting series of commencement events.

"Mr. Bob," a play, was presented at the McDonough street school Monday night. On Tuesday night the elocution class rendered a fine program. An enjoyable entertainment of old-fashioned melodies was presented by the grammar school pupils to a large audience Thursday night.

PEACHTREE ST. CARS BLOCKED 15 MINUTES

Outbound cars routed along Peachtree were blocked yesterday about 1 o'clock for fifteen minutes, due to a very peculiar occurrence.

A wagon of the Capital City laundry in some manner had driven over the automatic switch at the corner of Auburn and Peachtree, and the left front wheel got caught between the switch and one side of the rail and absolutely refused to budge until considerable efforts had been applied by the street car men. The wheel was finally loosened by main force and the cars allowed to proceed.

Will Advertise Stock.

Referee in Bankruptcy P. H. Adams yesterday authorized Hugh Howell, receiver in bankruptcy for the estate of Joseph Lazear, located at 118 Decatur street, to advertise the stock on hand for sale for two weeks, the date of the sale fixed by the referee being Thursday, May 28, at 10 o'clock, in the referee's court in the Grant building.

WILL NOT TAKE AGENTS FROM OTHER COMPANIES

Conference of Southern Life Insurance Men Comes to a Conclusion.

The conference of southern life insurance companies closed Friday afternoon after a successful two days' session at the Piedmont hotel.

The medical section of the new association was authorized Friday to examine all application and medical blanks used by the companies belonging to the association and form a uniform method of blanks to be used by them.

The companies entered into an agreement not to take insurance agents away from each other nor hire an agent who had left a company and was not in good standing with it. The executive committee was asked to investigate the methods employed in South Carolina in regard to licensing insurance agents, and make efforts to have these methods installed in the insurance departments of other southern states.

South Carolina has the reputation of having the most active and alert board of insurance examiners in the south, and makes a most thorough investigation of the character of the applicant for insurance agent license.

The Volunteers of America has already done much excellent work from its headquarters at 164 Central avenue.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES FROM DAY TO DAY

The interest of real estate men and capitalists is centered today in the auction sale of a number of building lots in Peachtree Heights park, which will be offered by the E. Rivers Realty company on the grounds this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The property lies west of Peachtree road, between Brookwood and Buckhead, and can be reached by Buckhead cars. The E. Rivers Realty company has spent a great deal of time and money in making these lots ideal for country residence purposes. The lay of the land is about as ideal as could be found in the vicinity of Atlanta. The most recent improvement of the property is the installation of arc street lights on the drives and streets of the subdivision.

Many of the lots of Peachtree Heights park have already been sold at private sale at good prices, and it is expected that today's sale will see some lively bidding.

Fight on Curb Broker.

Upon the initiative of W. A. Foster, of Foster & Robson, at the monthly meeting and luncheon of the Atlanta real estate board, at the Hotel Ansley yesterday, a fight was started on the curb real estate brokers.

Mr. Foster, in bringing the matter to the attention of the board, declared that there has recently been a great and detrimental increase in the number of curb brokers. He declared that they are continually trying to cut in on a part of the licensed agents' commissions. "I have turned away no less than half a dozen unlicensed brokers myself in the last week," he said. Others testified to the same experience.

Upon a motion of Mr. Foster a resolution was adopted instructing the secretary of the board to get from the city clerk a list of all licensed real estate agents in the city, and furnish multigraphed copies of this list to every agent who is a member of the real estate board for reference. When an agent finds a broker operating without a license he shall report it to the proper authorities.

It was pointed out that it is essential to the eradication of the curb broker that all licensed agents refuse to do business with such a broker.

Buy Your DeKalb License.

Mr. Foster also urged all members of the board who have not already done so to pay their license tax in DeKalb county, both to insure the freedom from being placed by any mistake in the curb broker class and to insure their commissions in sales in DeKalb county. He stated that several agents had recently lost commissions because they had neglected their DeKalb license taxes.

Agents Thank Hapeville.

A resolution was passed at yesterday's meeting of the board thanking the mayor of Hapeville for having the Hapeville ordinance requiring a license from Atlanta real estate men repealed. The mayor, recognizing the good that the activities of the Atlanta realty fraternity may be able to do Hapeville, made a long and strenuous fight for the repeal of the license tax, and has succeeded in this object only in the last few weeks.

One agent complained of the way agents are watched and questioned in East Point, and held up for license on all occasions. The action of the city council of Hapeville does away with such a condition there.

Thanks to Shriners.

A resolution was adopted by the board recognizing the splendid advertising which has been and will be derived from the city by the recent Shriners' convention, and thanking Forrest Adair and his co-workers for the landing of the convention for Atlanta and for the perfect manner in which they "pulled it off."

Barbecue Committee Appointed.

The annual barbecue of the Atlanta real estate board will be held some time next month. President Harris G. White yesterday appointed a committee to arrange the time, place and details. The committee consists of T. B. Davies, Eugene Kelley and H. W. Dews.

President White declared that it is his hope to make this year's barbecue the most enjoyable and successful that has yet been held. He instructed the committee to find, if possible, a place to hold the barbecue where there will be plenty of shade and facilities for dancing, swimming and boating. This would make Lakewood the most suitable spot, if the committee can obtain permission from the city to dig a barbecue pit there.

For the Next Convention.

Edgar Morris, of the Dillin-Morris agency, who is a member of the board committee on souvenirs for the Atlanta convention campaign at the annual national realty convention at Pittsburg next July, reported that the committee has a number of propositions under consideration, and will make a report to the executive committee of the board in a short time.

The committee to secure a large delegation to go to Pittsburg and boost Atlanta for the 1915 convention is also at work, and is expected to report definite results in the near future. The members of the board are confident that Atlanta can easily land the 1915 convention if she will go after it good and strong.

Meeting Was Enthusiastic.

While not as largely attended as some of the recent luncheons have been, Friday's realty luncheon was a very enthusiastic gathering. T. B. Davies, of Collins Brothers & Davies, was the host.

The agents present were optimistic of the market. Many declared that there has been a noticeable increase in inquiries since the close of the disturbing activities of the Shrine convention. There was a prevalent spirit of good business and a desire to make up for time lost during the convention and grand opera.

This feeling of the agents has been portrayed already through a noticeable increase during this week in the number of sales announced.

Atlanta's Council Captured By the Wonderful Luncheon Served by School Teachers

After being almost suffocated with honors and stuffed with good things to eat at the luncheon given by the faculties of the Girls' High and the English Commercial High schools, the "city fathers," including Mayor James G. Woodward and every member of the school board, were completely captivated yesterday afternoon.

For weeks "that luncheon" will be the one topic around the city hall. It will permeate board meetings. There won't be a thing the school teachers ask for that they won't get—that is, if it is within the gift of the city council or the board of education.

Friday was the day set aside by Miss Jessie Muse, of the Girls' High school, and Mrs. A. T. Wise, of the English Commercial High school, for the love feast to the city officials under whom the faculties of both schools serve. There was a generous splurge of oratory, singing by the 700 students, and then came the luncheon and the poetry in honor of the councilmen.

Here Is Toast List.

The luncheon was served by the teachers of the schools as a sort of mark of appreciation of council's action in passing the resolution equalizing the salaries of the teachers in the girls' and boys' high schools. Alderman Jesse Armistead, chairman of the school committee, who was the author of the resolution, occupied the place of honor as toastmaster at the luncheon. Toasts were offered as follows:

"To the Teachers, All Darlings," by Toastmaster Armistead.

"To the School Board," Councilman Jesse Wood.

"To the Mayor," Jerome Jones.

"To Atlanta's Council," William H. Terrell.

"To the Newspapers," Councilman Claude L. Ashley.

"To the Normal School," George M. Hope, chairman of the school board.

"To the High School," Alderman I. N. Ragsdale.

"To the High School and Commercial School Faculties," James L. Key.

Of course, there were responses by Miss Muse and Mrs. Wise, Mrs. J. D. Leitner, Miss Mary Postell, and Miss Mary Anderson.

More could be written about the luncheon and the speeches, and the poetry, and all the rest, but nothing could do justice to the fete. The lunch was served in one of the class rooms. Tables laden with good things to eat, great clusters of flowers, and beautiful teachers to serve was an inviting scene indeed.

Speeches in Auditorium.

In the auditorium Mayor Woodward, Commissioner Guinn, Chairman Hope, and Superintendent Slaton made speeches. The girls representing the student body occupied chairs in front. The luncheon was served by the following:

Faculty Girls' High School—Misses Jessie Muse, Charlotte Dunn, Mattie Slaton, Mary Moore, Mrs. J. D. Leitner, Misses Allie Mann, Susie Battle, Louise Catchings, Ida Melson, May Hill, Ethel Woolf, Louise Printup, Elizabeth Ragan, Corrie Belle Dawkins, Mary Frierson, Mary Anderson, Sue Claflin, Katherine Copeland, Emma Gregg, Elsie Krumrine, Annabel Horn, Martha Wilkins, Miss Mary Postell, director normal department; Miss Azile Simpson, critic teacher normal department; Miss Lulu Sergeant, librarian; Miss Madge Weaver, secretary; Miss Mary Comer, supernumerary.

Faculty English-Commercial High School—Mrs. A. T. Wise, Misses Mattie Burtchaell, Annie Barnwell, Callie Lee Prioleau, Mildred Converse, Marian Melson, Edith Anderson, Mildred Thompson, Marie Parks, Lillian Pierce.

SHOULDERED BLAME TO SAVE J. P. MORGAN

presence and sent it to the United States district attorney, and I nearly killed everybody in the office to keep Mr. Morgan's name out of it."

"To keep Mr. Morgan's name out of what?" asked Mr. Folk.

"Out of the whole proceeding."

"Had Mr. Morgan been subpoenaed in that matter?"

"I have learned through my counsel—I did not know it at the time—that he was subpoenaed and his subpoena was quashed, or nolled, whatever your legal term is for that action."

"Did you have any conversation with the present director of the road, Mr. J. P. Morgan, Jr.?" queried Mr. Folk.

"The present director?"

"Yes, sir."

"At the time Mr. Morgan called upon me and thought the change in the presidency was desirable, I called his attention to the fact that I had been suffering under the humiliation of an undeserved indictment to protect his father. He seemed quite affected; he turned to the window to compose his feelings, and returned to the conversation with the remark that his father's condition of health at that time was such that it undoubtedly would have killed him if he had been indicted. That was the condition I understood he was in when I took the responsibility upon myself and took the indictment that belonged to him."

"Where did you meet Mr. Ledyard and Mr. Robbins when that letter was framed?"

"In my office in New York."

"Did they make an appointment to meet you there?"

"I think there was an appointment. I think the other matter that was discussed at that time was the employment of special outside counsel for my defense. I may be wrong. It may have been a day or two afterwards. I had several appointments with those gentlemen to discuss this matter."

Letter Not Introduced.

The letter which Mr. Mellen said he wrote to the district attorney at New York, "for the purpose of shielding Mr. Morgan," was not introduced in evidence, and Governor Folk afterwards said it was not in his possession.

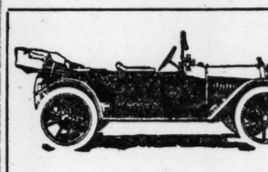

The closing scene of the day concluded the four days of gruelling interrogation that Mr. Mellen had undergone. Before the Morgan climax was reached, Governor Folk had developed the part taken by the various directors of the New Haven in the vast financial operations of the system. Mr. Mellen gave an intimate personal view of several members of the New Haven board, further emphasizing the dominant power of Mr. Morgan, particularly, and Mr. Rockefeller, Mr. Baker and Mr. Ledyard. He paid personal tributes of admiration to other members of the board.

Mr. Mellen also testified as to "holdups" in stocks to which he had been subjected as president of the New Haven, and said it was due to intimations that came to him that if legislation was wanted it would be a good idea to trade in stocks.

Mr. Mellen left Boston today for New York, and thence will go tomorrow to New England for a few days' rest. He has not been excused as a witness, but is subject to recall at any time. He assured Governor Folk he was ready to appear whenever he might be wanted.

The extent to which Mr. Mellen's testimony may render him immune from prosecution is still an open question. Officials of the department of justice have expressed the view that the testimony would raise the question of immunity, but the interstate commerce commission has proceeded on grounds that the testimony was called for by a resolution of the United States senate without reference to what its effect might be.

Governor Folk has not determined yet who will be the next witness, but he probably will have either Lewis Cass Ledyard or George F. Baker, of the New Haven directorate, on the stand at the resumption of the hearing next Tuesday.

PUBLIC ROADS CLEARED BY THIS CRAZED MAN

Bremen, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Considerable excitement has been caused by a report of a wild man being at large in the community of Biggers, a small station just east of Bremen.

Sheriff Parker, Policeman Blakemore, of Bremen, and others went to that community Thursday to investigate, and after scouring the woods and fields for several hours ran into the party that had been causing no little uneasiness to the inhabitants, especially the women and children.

The officers managed to get close enough to the man to overpower him. The man proved to be John Preast. He had been stopping automobilists and wielding a dangerous knife. He cleared the public highway of joyriders. He has been lodged in jail.

GAINESVILLE CITIZEN HELD UP AND ROBBED

S. R. Howard, of Gainesville, Ga., was held up and robbed of $4.60 last night at the underpass on Decatur street by two negroes. One negro held a gun in his face while the other searched him.

Howard says he grappled with the negro who was searching him and tried to throw him between himself and the one with the gun, but that the negro threw him down and they both fled. He describes the negroes: "One black and one yellow."

Two Negros Hanged.

Friars Point, Miss., May 22.—Dave Washington and Joseph Thomas, negroes, were hanged here today for the murder of Frank Mullen, a deputy sheriff, March 18 last.

Thomas confessed on the gallows that he plotted with Washington to kill Mullen, who was sent to arrest them for a misdemeanor.

"Sealed Orders."

(At the Grand.)

Four performances today at 2, 3:30, 7:30 and 9 o'clock will bid goodby to "Sealed Orders," the thrilling war drama in seven parts at the Grand, as well as the Patne's special pictures of "The Shriners in Atlanta," showing the parade, the drills at Piedmont park, etc.

The Grand management announce for Monday "Mr. Barnes, of New York," a five-reel Vitagraph masterpiece photo-drama, with Maurice Costello and other Vitagraph stars. This picture will be shown the first three days of next week, and is the first of the Vitagraph theater, New York, successes to come to Atlanta.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

Matinee and night performances today will complete another week of success at the popular Forsyth. For the week that commences with matinee on Monday a combination of the best Keith vaudeville will be the bill. The headliner is Lasky's "Red-Heads," with Joseph Carson and sixteen clever entertainers. An act that promises to be a novelty hit will be Erwin and Jane Connelly in a heart interest playlet called "Sweethearts." Duffy and Lorenze, a chattering dancing comedian and a very pretty girl, will be another attractive act, and Dorothy Meuther, a decidedly clever comedienne, promises to be a strong card for the whole week. Webb and Burns, the Italian minstrels, promise a treat in new music, and the six Samarins will appear in Russian novelty dances.

"The Escape."

(At the Lyric.)

This afternoon and tonight bring the last performances of "The Escape," at the Lyric, perhaps the most popular play of the La Verne company's season. On Monday night the company will begin a week's engagement of "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," a comedy in which Miss Lucile La Verne will have the dominant role, that of an old maid aunt from the country who comes to New York and sees the sights. Miss La Verne starred in the part for a season, and several members of the Atlanta cast appeared in the New York company.

Also to operate stores and commissaries in connection with their operations, and to buy and sell goods, wares and merchandise therein and all tools, appliances and supplies useful or needed in the conduct of mining operations.

4. Petitioners ask power to acquire, develop and operate waterpowers and riparian rights, to use and employ the power generated either in its own mining operations or for sale to the public, including towns, municipalities and counties; to build, equip, operate and maintain electric power and lighting plants generated either by water power or steam with transmission lines, and acquire the necessary property therefor, and with the right to exercise the power of eminent domain to acquire property for any of said purposes, and to sell electric energy for all purposes, and to acquire any property, real or personal, and to do all things and have all such rights as are expedient to carry out and render effective or beneficial the powers prayed for in this petition.

Such resolution may be passed by a vote of a majority of the stock outstanding.

7. They desire power to elect such board of directors, not less than three in number, as the stockholders may by law from time to time constitute, and elect or appoint such officers and agents as it shall desire. To adopt by-laws and alter the same at pleasure, and to possess and enjoy all powers common to corporations of this character, or promotive of its objects.
